FALSE PROPHETS, GUIDES, AND TEACHERS	359
------------------------------------------------	-----

A P O L O G I A.

THIS work is the outcome of my own search for spirit and life, — a labor so fruitful in peace, so decisive in result, that I have been led to hope it might have a use beyond my personal needs.

At middle life I found myself without a creed, — a Christian neither in faith nor work, out of sympathy with Christian ethics as adapted to the uses of modern society, and deeply antagonistic to organic Christianity as manifested in the Church. At the same time I did not acknowledge myself anti-Christian, nor had I any disposition to drift into that spiritual fatalism which shelters the agnostic from the controversial storms that rage about Calvary. I was simply drifting rapidly away from the religious traditions of my youth, flying no flag, and yet not prepared to cast overboard the banner of the cross, — my course darkened by speculative doubts, and the philosophic craft, such as it was, in which I had embarked my soul, battered by continual and bitter tempests. As nearly as I can gather from intercourse with my fellow-men my condition fairly represented that of many thousands about me, who, born and bred in a Christian community, and not openly at war with its philosophy, have yet been thrown out of adjustment with its working, through the operation of modern materialism and critical rationalism, — a condition of restless, unsatisfied dissent, continually augmented by every new breath of controversy, by every failure of correspondence between the Faith and its professors, and leaving the man at odds with both worlds and himself. Yet I think that those in this condition, although intellectually wavering, can never settle into agnosticism, however long and far they wander from the truth. Having denied Him at the threshold of their hearts, though looking upon His face, they must wander unsatisfied, like the Jew, with the vision of Calvary always present, no matter how persistently avoided, and the echoes of the Divine voice ever ringing in their hearts, no matter how stifled, till He come again — here or beyond.

And so with me. Although the discord within kept me constantly at variance with the spirit and the life of truth, and each new failure of my intellect to answer the riddles of existence made my arraignments of Providence more uncompromising, I never lost consciousness of the Divine personality, nor cast off wholly my allegiance to Christianity as the religion of truth. I say this to my shame, for with the sense of the truth latent in my heart, the Spirit of Truth pleading in my conscience, and the path of truth open before me, I persisted in the way of those who compromise with their inclinations, and seek self-justification in the philosophy of the comfortable, upon which modern society builds the fabric of its impiety to God and its injustice to man. To my condition might well be applied that which was written to the Laodiceans in Revelation: "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would that thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see."

There came a time, however, when I felt that either I must get my bearings and know plainly where I lay with reference to my faith in the God of my youth, — His dealings with me, and mine with Him, — or that I must face godless and alone that gray, awful waste of waters whose horizon is eternity, with no star in the infinite night for a pole, and no hope of a haven at any time. To live longer in such a state was neither honest nor tolerable. Far better to utterly renounce, if so be I must, even though the renunciation stripped me bare, than cling against conviction to a sentiment, however consoling, enshrined in a fable, however beautiful, solely through fear of the desolation that would follow its loss. Every field of human research was barren in food for my hunger. No Religion of Humanity, although it might give me something to live for, could give me anything to live on, — much less to die on; neither could modern neo-platonism, the Philosophies of the Absolute, or any stone of modern metaphysics, supply a substitute for the warm heart of God, the living fount of universal love and universal hope. Yet if I could not call Him Father in spirit and in truth I felt that I had no part nor lot in the great brotherhood of Him who, alone of all ~~who~~^{that} have spoken in all time, taught the Fatherhood of God, — but must accept what comfort I could get out of current isms and the growth of science, or with the agnostics set a hard face against fate.

When I first set about a serious endeavor to draw out of the confusion of my doubts and perplexities a clear estimate of my position I began to recognize two important facts in my relation to Christianity: the first, that I knew very little of the philosophy of Christ's teaching; the second, that my principal conceptions of Him came through the historical and physical phenomena of His life, — in other words, that my mental attitude towards him had relation almost entirely to His historical and physical, and very little to His theo-ethical aspect. Upon reflection I saw that all my wonder and questionings, my incredulities and fears had their roots in His physical manifestations, and that my approaches along that line were always beset by ever recurring and increasing perplexities. Furthermore, I remembered, as I reviewed the rationalistic assaults upon Christianity, that the line of attack was ever over the same field, and that all the enginery of critical warfare was of necessity planted upon that ground. The assault was ever on the man-Christ, upon the supposition that that once destroyed the God-Christ of necessity disappeared; whereas it now began to occur to me that the God-Christ loomed infinitely out of range, and could be reached by no bullet of logic or empirical synthesis, and that once apprehended immediately the man-Christ became equally invulnerable. It was the God-Christ, then, that I wished to see and know, apart from the man-Christ, in order that by knowing the former I might understand the latter, and unite both in my heart; and I found that it is in this way that He himself promises to be revealed as the truth and the life, and by no other, — whereas it is by the other way that all sceptical criticism of necessity insists upon approaching Him.

It appeared very certain to my mind that the nature of spiritual truth was such that it could be apprehended only through spiritual faculties; that its proof must be intrinsic and could never by the nature of things be extrinsic, and that every effort to reason toward it through physical approaches must result only in negation; that to attempt to prove or disprove the truth of spiritual by the logic of material phenomena was an infinitely greater paradox than to measure a mother's ecstasy in algebraic terms, or to analyze grief by the chemistry of a tear. The laws by which the soul apprehends spiritual truth are not laws which have been or can be formulated through the Baconian method. Spiritual truths once accepted through the irresistible conviction of spiritual illumination give birth to that state called faith, which involves simply the acknowledgment of the inadequacy of our physical senses to decide upon truth outside of the narrow environment in which they are conditioned. I had been until then among the multitude of those who seek a sign, and to whom no sign is given save that of the Resurrection; but I now perceived that if the word of Christ carried irresistible conviction of its truth when approached from the spiritual side, all attendant material phenomena stood on a relatively inferior plane, and the doubts and difficulties attending their acceptance immediately dissolved. It seemed to my mind, the more I reflected upon it, that the position of so-called scientific rationalism toward Christianity, in assuming to try the open secret of spiritual life in the criminal court of the empirical philosophy, along with the venerable errors of archæology and physics, is most unscientific and irrational, and that of the two agnosticism is more reasonable and modest.

In modern controversy the great fact that Divine wisdom laid the foundations of His system on the broad and deep basis of the human affections, from which spring all impulses to right and wrong doing, and which in the last analysis determine our moral value, seems to have been lost sight of, as well as the fact that any categorical definition of such a system is essentially impossible on any basis of physical analysis. When rational criticism turned its scalpel upon the body of organized theology it found a work, and a good work, in dissecting and amputating the formal and morbid accretions with which the vanity of man had encrusted the vital truth of God ; but when the knife probed further, its function ended, — it could not dissect spiritual light, and its use ceased to be rational when the attempt was made.

I therefore made up my mind to approach spiritual truth from its spiritual side, — to acquaint myself fully with Christ's doctrine in His own words apart from any consideration of the narrative context, taking it directly from the lips of the Master, and meditating upon it in the quiet of my own soul free from the noise of every sort of controversy, theological or rational. I could not find all His words thus separated in any printed form, although many volumes of excerpts had been published, and I was therefore compelled to write them out. When I had done this the step that naturally followed was to arrange them, and it is the result of these operations that I have concluded to place at the service of all who may desire to pass the same way.

It may perhaps seem strange that so important a crisis should be resolved by a transcription of that which was already manifest in a form accepted as sufficient by so many centuries ; and to that reasonable suggestion I can only reply that in the natural development of man his new intellectual growths evolve new demands for their nourishment, which the infinite adequacy of divine truth will meet and satisfy ; and that in this age of keen and critical analysis, as in every other, the divine words will justify themselves to all earnest seekers who approach them in humility of heart and singleness of purpose, and in their integrity as a body of doctrine, independent of historical fact, will manifest their sufficiency to the reason as well as the heart. While eternal truth cannot vary, its presentations are infinite, and it is in the belief that this presentation of it may reach and satisfy or help some inquirer who, like myself, desires to see the entire recorded utterances of the Saviour in a separate and coherent body, that I have been led to put it into print.

As I have said, I do not know and cannot find that this complete separation has been effected before. Perhaps in the belief that it has not been done I may be in error, in which case its re-presentation cannot do harm; but in any event this formal arrangement was arrived at by an earnest desire to attain a closer knowledge of the word of Christ than had come to me through the reading and hearing of the New Testament as a narrative, and it has achieved in this respect an amount of good that I hope may not be limited to myself.

It will be said that this result is a mosaic, whose combination may be affected by personal bias or error; to which the reply is that any formal determination of Christ's doctrine is necessarily a mosaic, derived from the four Gospels and affected by the personal element in the individual student; but that in the present instance the only speaker is the divine Author Himself, whose words are associated with no sectarian bias on the part of the compiler, — his purpose being only to gather together in the most coherent arrangement all utterances upon the same topic, leaving the references to explain the normal position of each text, and thereby to present the divine philosophy in its integrity as its own witness, a compact and interdependent whole. One of the most surprising facts to me in this result has been its marvellous coherency when so separated from explanatory incident and comment in the context. I confess to having had small expectation of any very general coherency in such a combination of scattered texts, but under the careful scrutiny of study and meditation all the collected elements resolved themselves into a satisfying discourse upon each special topic, speaking to all humanity for all time. Nowhere else have I seen realized so fully the sublime conciseness of this delivery of truth to man, — the holy grandeur of its reticence and completeness. The great silences are no less imposing and overwhelming than the terrible directness and simplicity of its rhetoric. In both the soul of man stands naked before its Maker, abashed and conscience-smitten as in the first day of sin, but to receive, instead of the curse, the absolution; instead of the rejection, reconciliation; instead of the forfeiture, the promise.

The method in the analysis here presented has been a very simple one : —

First, I have thought best to retain every recorded word attributed to Christ as a direct utterance in the books of the New Testament.

Second, I have concluded to use the accepted version rather than the revised, for the simple reason that it is the familiar one.

Third, I have designated the topics after a careful study of each text many times gone over, assigning every text to as many topics as its construction would in my judgment fairly justify.

Fourth, I have studied under each topic the mutual relation of all the texts assigned to it, and endeavored to arrange them to form a coherent discourse upon that topic, retaining the references to locate their true position in the gospel narrative.

Fifth, I have endeavored to arrange the topics in a scheme of relation which shall bring kindred topics into proper association, and all into due subordination.

Let no man's theology be offended by this work. Herein is no attempt to pad dogma and excite polemics. The simple motive that produced it was a search for truth by one who is neither a theologian nor a critic, but whose needs were satisfied by nothing less than a clear analysis of the words of the Master, — a comprehension of all he had said upon every topic he had discussed; and, be it observed, the topics here given grew out of the study of the Word, and were not selected or arranged as a dogmatic skeleton for development. Especially was I fearful of infusing my own personality into the result by seeking to give doctrinal bias or notional development to any association of texts or selection of title. The titles were chosen as the best I could find to express the subject dwelt upon, and not because of any dogmatic association. If offence to any one should lie in a title let him substitute one that shall please him better, and remember that above all things I desire to avoid making the words of spirit and life unacceptable to any seeker after truth. Christ's discourse is not a theory of life seeking justification in the philosophies of men, but life itself finding justification in what it brings to the dead and dying soul — "Though he were dead yet shall he live." It is not for dreaming and speculation, but for assimilation, regeneration, growth.

With the words written in chronological sequence before me, each verse from the beginning to the end was considered with reference to the topic or topics which naturally evolved from its meaning, and was labelled and left for future sorting. The number of topics resulting from this study I could only know when the last verse had been assigned. This done, the next step was to sort and study again with reference to the association and mutual relation of kindred texts. The discourse resulting from this is the whole of the Master's utterance upon that particular subject alone, and this is all that this treatment aims to be or to do. If any man seeks more he is grievously mistaken, and if in this assemblage of truth he does not find a larger revelation and a growing help it is I who am mistaken, and this book is not for him; or if he challenge the selection, or the arrangement, or the judgment that moulded the scheme I have no quarrel with him, but bid him God-speed in his search for a better way. One thing only I shall say in defence of this, namely, that I have used my best diligence to make it perfect according to the light that was given me, and have preferred to be scrupulous in giving every utterance its place in every topic clearly involved in its meaning, rather than economize in repetition. More than this, as this is no digest or compendium of the words of Christ, but a strict topical analysis in which everything should appear unchanged, but co-ordinated, I have preferred to repeat even in the few cases where texts are verbally identical in two or more Gospels, rather than give several references to the same text. From this it results that many verses are often repeated and appear in extenso under various heads. But this is the glory of the Word, and he who sees but one application in the pregnant words that hold the universe is among the number of those who, "seeing, see not."

But above all, let it not be inferred that anything in the purpose of this work tends to discredit the pre-eminence of the Gospels in their integrity, or the glory of the supreme epic of that life of sacrificial love. This is an attempt only to make clear the way by which to approach that life through the words of Him who is the way, the truth, and the life. For to us who have not lived in the wondrous aura of spiritual light that radiated from that human personality, who cannot drink from His lips, nor look into the infinite depths of His eyes, the closest touch must lie in the words that were spoken for us and for all time to come, — the body in which He still lives for us, and which He foreknew must satisfy our hunger and thirst for truth. I do not suppose that by this approach there will exist no perplexities for the soul to brood upon, but they are perplexities that diminish with contemplation; while to him who approaches solely by the physical side, struggling toward the Cross through the war of controversy, the difficulties thicken at every step, and either he will be taken prisoner by the enemy, and led away captive, or fall exhausted with enervated faith or deadened faculties. O thready dialecticians of the word, let us first walk steadfastly in the way about which there is no dispute, and lo! we shall find it leads where all things are made clear.

Whatever may be said of the result, it is at least the whole of all that has been given to us of the divine Philosophy of Life by its Author, presented by itself. Its completeness and sufficiency, divorced from and independent of that local association which results from the narrative context, and which would seem at times to restrict the range of application of many utterances, is a wonderful witness to its divinity. There is hardly a word, even among the special utterances to individuals, that does not find an application and develop a significance for all time.

*

Viewed alone as a body of doctrine and as a message of authority, the aspects of this supreme discourse present themselves to me in the following order : —

First, its inevitable truth. This truth is not of the reason, but dominating and guiding the reason. The reason assents through the overwhelming force of conscious spiritual assent, and the contact once made in humility of heart with the spirit and the life, the words speak close into the heart and penetrate the vital system with the glow of new life, — arousing the soul into a new existence. In the enchanted palace, overgrown with vines and noxious weeds, its windows choked and darkened, its chambers damp and unwholesome, deep within the shadow of the forest, sleeps the princess of the fable. Her court stands paralyzed, each with suspended function, — life latent, but impotent to move until the vital touch of him, long foreordained to come, shall break the evil spell that holds all things bound to living death. The prince appears, the kiss is given, and in an instant all is life and light.

Within God's temple of the body, overgrown with clinging weeds of earthy selfishness and greed, its windows choked and darkened, its chambers damp and unwholesome, deep in the shadow of spiritual darkness, sleeps the Soul. All its faculties stand paralyzed with suspended function, — life latent, but impotent to act until the vital touch of Him "who maketh all things new," long foreordained to come, shall loose the curse of Sin that holds all things bound to death. The Prince of Peace appears, and with his kiss of reconciliation the Spirit enters, the Soul awakes with all its energies alive, — the man lives, he sees through the Soul, the Soul looks through the cleared windows of the body, and behold !

Second, its divinity. Infolded in the truth and irradiating it lives the Spirit of Truth, and with the unfolding of truth to the spiritual eye comes the vision of the divinity within. We are first possessed by the truth and we know that the possession is not by our reason or by virtue of our own superior knowledge, but by communication from outside. We see by flashes, as the lightning reveals the world concealed by night, and we know that the light is not our own but from above and around us, — “For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.” We see at first for an instant, and perhaps the darkness returns, and the flash is not again for long; but we have seen a fragment of the universe beyond; we know that in the womb of night creation lives; and as we grow in grace the lightning surely will flash oftener and oftener, until we near the dawn of day when the Sun of Righteousness shall appear.

The divinity of this truth is its essence. This is not man's truth. It is not that truth which lies within the grasp of the senses and the verification of the intellect. It does not adjust itself to formulas, nor express itself in terms which can be mechanically handled. Subtract from it plain morality, — that which it has in common with all that has possessed the conscience of man in all ages and all philosophies, that heritage of right-seeing that comes as his birthright, — and what an infinitude of righteousness above and beyond is still left. This wonderful structure has not the tool-marks of man's handiwork anywhere upon it. Its foundations were laid down in the ages by man working blindly, as the laborer under the guidance of the great Architect; but beside this pillar of light that stands to enlighten the world, what are the crumbling obelisks of human creeds and philosophies? Compared with its dayspring, what radiance do their blurred hieroglyphs shed into the perishing soul of man?

Third, its infinite hostility, if I may use the term, to the philosophy of man's material development, and the religion of success, the emanation of his greeds and pleasures, with their plastic code of ethics and lex talionis, which first arrays man against his neighbor, and ultimately nation against nation in a struggle for supremacy; to a social compact based upon man's appetites, and sustained by the tremendous forces of selfishness and vanity, through the logic of whose laws he wrests his pleasure from the needs of his fellow; to that indifference which is the moral coma preceding spiritual death, — the poison of the lotus fruit of physical and intellectual self-indulgence. Against all these Christ has declared uncompromising war, and comes, not to bring peace, but the fire and sword of the Spirit, which also must set a man at variance with his neighbor, nation against nation, and even a household against itself. His vital principle of social and national development is the direct opposite of these motive impulses so insidiously interpenetrating the life of modern society. It begins at the root of things, far back of the motives upon which history is built. It is the violated principle of life, — the Law of Love brought back to earth, and manifest in His person through His sacrifice, and in His blood of the New Testament, which is to become the life blood of humanity.

Between these opposing principles no compromise is possible ; and it is the reluctance of a large part of the Christian world to acknowledge the impossibility of any compromise between God's absolute law of love and man's law of selfishness, to mark with a plain undeviating line the separation between them, to bear unwaveringly to its logical consequences the law of self-abnegation, to stand unfalteringly upon the rock of Christ's word and mission, that dismembers the Church and weakens its power.

The law of self-abnegation, which is the fruit of perfect love, is the message of Christ to modern — to all society : it is the divinely ordained path to that fuller relation which is denied to dialectical skill and the pride of intellect : it is the source of all essential dogma revealed by the Grace of the Spirit to the unselfish and submissive heart, — " I am the way ; " " I am the door ; " " If any man will do his will, he shall know, " — and nineteen centuries of theological polemics have not sufficed to prepare a form of Christianity which can reconcile the law of love and harmony in which God moves to the law of force and opposing interest in which society lives and moves and has its being ; therefore, all the efforts of modern temporizers and opportunists who in Christ's name adulterate the pure savor of the bread of life to the taste of the philosophic materialism of the age tend only to broaden the gulf between the Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of man, "so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us that would come from thence."

Not only does Christianity appear positive in its hostility toward every development of materialism, but toward all other philosophical systems, and essentially so, for the reason that, whatever their ethical aim, their method of development is human and intellectual,—from man towards God; whereas in Christianity the development is divine and emotional,—from God to man. The philosophies reproach Christianity with being a religion of emotion. This is a true charge and its chief glory,—indeed, its pre-eminent stamp of divinity; but the emotion implied in the reproach, physical and hysterical, is as far from the emotion of faith, which is spiritual and rational, as is the difference in the attitudes of the heart in the two systems. Remove the point of contact, morals, which is but the preliminary condition of Christianity evolved in the child-world by the stern training of the Law of the Old Dispensation, and there is no reconciliation possible between their theogonies and it. "All who came before me are thieves and robbers."

Fourth, its simplicity. The record of the Messiah given to the world has bared His human life to the quick, stripped it relentlessly of all externals, and revealed the Word to humanity in the clear directness of His mission. The austerity with which the story of a life so full of marvel is limited to the simple facts related to His spiritual development and work is eloquent of the Divine inspiration guiding the narrative. "He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory. I seek not mine own glory." From the beginning the miraculous, the personal and circumstantial, are subordinated or wholly suppressed with a divine indifference for their importance in the eyes of men that seems marvellous to all generations, and the voice of the Redeemer sounds clear and penetrating above time, and place, and circumstance, exhorting always the heart of man to spirit and life.

Is it for nothing that the door is shut upon twenty-seven years of that unique existence; that no syllable discloses to the physical eye the person of the Son of man; that no corner of the veil is lifted upon the personal intercourse, so intimate, so tragic, of those three pregnant years? The wonderful silence of those historians of God, utterly obliterating their own personality, and refraining from the record of a single item of all the many incidents dear to the memory, and exalting to the heart, so natural to relate — is it only the accident of a devout modesty? Did Mark gather nothing from the lips of Peter, or Luke from Paul but the stringent narrative of their text? In all the discourses of Christ the one circumstance of His life upon which He dwells, and towards which the solemn procession of His days inevitably leads, is His death. All else is ignored, and is but the frame in which is set the manifestation of His word to man. The one social picture upon which we are permitted to dwell is His sacrificial feast; the one gift which He accepts at the hand of man is the ointment that anoints Him for his burial. "She hath wrought a good work upon me. Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her." The hand of woman, first cursed of God, pours the chrism upon the head of the Messiah, and her act, accepted of Him, crowns her with glory and forgiveness for all time.

Fifth, its practical individualism, the key-note of which is, "The Kingdom of God is within you." It is the individual that must leaven the world. The function of the Church is not to de-individualize, to be vicarious, but to aid and encourage the person. Its function is to associate, to administer, to console, to strengthen. It was not commissioned to bear mankind's cross, but to each soul separately is said, "Take up thy cross and follow me." He was the man, the individual type, and in the temple of each human heart He is ready to take His abode. The way to truth and life is not through the Church, but through Him: "I am the door." The dealings of Christ are directly with the individual, His address is made directly to the ego, without formality or circumlocution. If the man will do the will of his Father he shall know of the doctrine. If any man serve Him him will the Father honor; and if any man love Him he will keep His words, and the Father will love him, and they will come to him and make their abode with him. As Christianity now confronts the individual, however, the relation is very different. There stands an elaborate mechanism between him and the Redeemer. There are centuries of theology and many elaborate formalities to perplex his judgment. The way is not plain, it is beset with labyrinthine perplexities. It is not simply a choice of taking up the cross and following Him, but a choice of dogma and doctrinal distinctions. The Church has become the churches, each fencing in with jealous claim the bread of life, and we have seen in our days the spectacle of two great intellects, — the one, armed with the dialectics of nineteen centuries, after a life of keenest study and controversial battle, laying down his arms and passing through the heavy portal of the Roman fortress; the other, wearied and repelled, refusing allegiance to all, and practising Christianity as a philosophy of stoical benevolence.

But this Word of Life and of Spirit, pure and simple, demands little of exegesis in order to lead the soul to God, and admits of no compromise with expediency. It is the force of gravity of the spiritual universe, and the soul outside the influence of its laws is a pathless wanderer in the void of death. The part which "higher criticism," devout or sceptical, can play in any essential conversion of doubt and hesitation into faith and acceptance, or the converse, must of necessity be very small. The higher criticism appeals to the higher critics on both sides, and belongs to the domain of controversy. There is no provision in the philosophy of Christ's mission for a controversial proof of its truth, but everywhere in clear words the Divine call speaks to the individual heart of man with the uncompromising authority of eternal Omniscience. He who seeks shall find, and unto him who knocks it shall be opened ; but the way and the door are not through the higher criticism, nor indeed any criticism at all. There is, according to Christ's plain teaching, but one way to reach the life that He offers, and that way is not rational contention, but spiritual submission and regeneration. The same way that led to the hearts of the unlettered poor who hung upon His footsteps, and through which the great empire of wretchedness was penetrated and quickened into a living church, is the way by which every heart must find Him to-day. In humility, in contrition, in simple earnestness of purpose is the attitude His law demands, and into the soul so bowed the light of conviction will burst with overwhelming radiance.

Nor need this fact discredit the labor of those many noble and devout men, learned and pure-hearted, who strive to make clear the eternal verities of God. Surely all the work of all the human race is not enough to demonstrate the conservation of divine truth throughout the universe ; and equally sure it is that all this work of itself could lead no single soul to its Redeemer. The critical labor which day by day is unfolding correspondences unseen before, reconciling apparent contradictions unexplained before, and justifying the truth to the reason and senses is the work of divine light in the heart of man, but its bearing upon the believing heart is ex post facto. The soul reaches its Redeemer on its knees, — not walking in the arrogance of questioning doubt. Whatever accretions of human fallibility overlaying the Word may be cut away by the higher criticism, the great central core of divine light is so supreme and sufficient to the acquiescent soul that the work does not concern his peace, but has its interest in the satisfaction of seeing truth justified and the ways of the Lord made straight. Happy the man who in humility and purity of purpose brings his heart to the feet of the Master, and in doing the will of the Father learns of this doctrine, whether it be of God or of man.

THE GODHEAD.

SPIRIT AND LIFE.

THE GODHEAD.

I.

THE FATHER.

I AM the God of Abraham, and the God Math. xxii. 32.
of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

I am the God of Abraham, and the God Mark xii. 26.
of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

He is not the God of the dead, but the Mark xii. 27.
God of the living.

Hear, O Israel ; The Lord our God is one Mark xii. 29.
Lord.

The God of Abraham, and the God of Luke xx. 37.
Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

For he is not a God of the dead, but of Luke xx. 38.
the living: for all live unto him.

God is a spirit: and they that worship John iv. 24.
him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

Why callest thou me good? there is none Math. xix. 17.
good but one, that is, God.

II.

THE SON.

HIS DIVINITY.

I AND my Father are one. John x. 30.
 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before John viii. 58.
 Abraham was, I am.

If God were your Father, ye would love John viii. 42.
 me : for I proceeded forth and came from God ; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

And he that seeth me seeth him that sent John xii. 45.
 me.

If ye had known me, ye should have John xiv. 7.
 known my Father also : and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

Have I been so long time with you, and John xiv. 9.
 yet hast thou not known me, Philip ? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father ; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father ?

I came forth from the Father, and am John xvi. 28. come into the world : again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

Father, the hour is come ; glorify thy Son, John xvii. 1.
 that thy Son also may glorify thee :

As thou hast given him power over all John xvii. 2.
 flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

And this is life eternal, that they might John xvii. 3. know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. John xvii. 5.

For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have re-came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me. John xvii. 8.

And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them. John xvii. 10.

And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee.
Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. John xvii. 11.

That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. John xvii. 21.

And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: John xvii. 22.

I in them and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me. John xvii. 23.

Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. John xvii. 24.

Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not. John vii. 28.

But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works ; that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him. John x. 38.

All things are delivered unto me of my Father : and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father ; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. Math. xi. 27.

All things are delivered to me of my Father : and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father ; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him. Luke x. 22.

For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels ; and then he shall reward every man according to his works. Math. xvi. 27.

And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me. Luke vii. 23.

I can of mine own self do nothing : as I hear, I judge : and my judgment is just ; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me. John v. 30.

And yet if I judge, my judgment is true : John viii. 16.
for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

And he that sent me is with me : the John viii. 29.
Father hath not left me alone ; for I do always those things that please him.

And I seek not mine own glory : there is John viii. 50.
one that seeketh and judgeth.

Now is the Son of man glorified, and God John xiii. 31.
is glorified in him.

If God be glorified in him, God shall also John xiii. 32.
glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

If I bear witness of myself, my witness is John v. 31.
not true.

There is another that beareth witness of John v. 32.
me ; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

If any man will do his will, he shall know John vii. 17.
of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

He that speaketh of himself seeketh his John vii. 18.
own glory : but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

If I honour myself, my honour is nothing : John viii. 54.
it is my Father that honoureth me : of whom ye say, that he is your God :

Yet ye have not known him ; but I know John viii. 55. him : and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you : but I know him, and keep his saying.

I receive not honour from men. John v. 41.

But I receive not testimony from man : but these things I say, that ye might be saved. John v. 34.

But I have greater witness than that of John : for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. John v. 36.

And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape. John v. 37.

I am the bread of life : he that cometh to me shall never hunger ; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. John vi. 35.

I am the living bread which came down from heaven : if any man eat of this bread, he shall live forever : and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. John vi. 51.

I am that bread of life. John vi. 48.

I have meat to eat that ye know not of. John iv. 32.

Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods ? John x. 34.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor ; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

Luke iv. 18.

To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

Luke iv. 19.

This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears.

Luke iv. 21.

Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself : whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

Luke iv. 23.

Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

Luke iv. 24.

But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land.

Luke iv. 25.

But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

Luke iv. 26.

And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet ; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you? Luke xii. 14.

Hear another parable : There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country : Math. xxi. 33.

And when the time of the fruit drew near, Math. xxi. 34.
he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

And the husbandmen took his servants, Math. xxi. 35 and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

Again, he sent other servants more than Math. xxi. 36.
the first : and they did unto them likewise.

But last of all he sent unto them his son, Math. xxi. 37.
saying, They will reverence my son.

But when the husbandmen saw the son, Math. xxi. 38.
they said among themselves, This is the heir ; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

And they caught him, and cast him out of Math. xxi. 39.
the vineyard, and slew him.

When the lord therefore of the vineyard Math. xxi. 40.
cometh, what will he do unto those husband-men ?

A certain man planted a vineyard, and set Mark xii. 1. a hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

And at the season he sent to the husband- Mark xii. 2. men a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

And they caught him, and beat him, and Mark xii. 3.
sent him away empty.

And again he sent unto them another Mark xii. 4. servant ; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

And again he sent another ; and him they killed, and many others ; beating some, and killing some. Mark xii. 5.

Having yet therefore one son, his well beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son. Mark xii. 6.

But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir ; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. Mark xii. 7.

And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. Mark xii. 8.

What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do ? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. Mark xii. 9.

A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time. Luke xx. 9.

And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard : but the husbandman beat him, and sent him away empty. Luke xx. 10.

And again he sent another servant : and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. Luke xx. 11.

And again he sent a third : and they wounded him also, and cast him out. Luke xx. 12.

Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do ? I will send my beloved son : it may be they will reverence him when they see him. Luke xx. 13.

But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. Luke xx. 14.

So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them? Luke xx. 15.

He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. Luke xx. 16.

HIS MINISTRY.

WOMAN, what have I to do with thee? John ii. 4.
mine hour is not yet come.

For even the Son of man came not to be Mark x. 45.
ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Even as the Son of man came not to be Math. xx. 28.
ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Yet a little while is the light with you. John xii. 35.
Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you : for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

While ye have light, believe in the light, John xii. 36.
that ye may be the children of light.

Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak John iii. 11.
that we do know, and testify that we have seen ; and ye receive not our witness.

The harvest truly is plenteous, but the Math. ix. 37.
labourers are few ;

Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, Math. ix. 38. that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

The harvest truly is great, but the labour- Luke x. 2.
ers are few : pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

Say not ye, There are yet four months, John iv. 35.
and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. John iv. 36.

And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. John iv. 37.

I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours. John iv. 38.

Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand. Math. xii. 25

And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. Mark iii. 24.

And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand. Mark iii. 25.

Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. Luke xi. 17.

And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand? Math. xii. 26.

How can Satan cast out Satan? Mark iii. 23.

And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. Mark iii. 26.

If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub. Luke xi. 18.

And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges. Math. xii. 27.

And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. Luke xi. 19.

But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you. Math. xii. 28.

But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. Luke xi. 20.

Or else, how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. Math. xii. 29.

No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house. Mark iii. 27.

When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace: Luke xi. 21.

But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. Luke xi. 22.

He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad. Math. xii. 30.

He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. Luke xi. 23.

Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? Luke v. 34.

MEDIATOR, CONSOLER, INTER-CESSOR, REDEEMER.

I AM the way, and the truth and the life : no John xiv. 6.
man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

I am the true vine, and my Father is the John xv. 1.
husbandman.

Every branch in me that beareth not fruit John xv. 2.
he taketh away : and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch John xv. 4. cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine ; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

I am the vine, ye are the branches. He John xv. 5.
that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit ; for without me ye can do nothing.

If a man abide not in me, he is cast John xv. 6.
forth as a branch, and is withered ; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

As the Father hath loved me, so have I John xv. 9.
loved you : continue ye in my love.

If ye keep my commandments, ye shall John xv. 10.
abide in my love ; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

These things have I spoken unto you, that John xv. 11.
my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

Henceforth I call you not servants ; for John xv. 15.
the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth :
but I have called you friends ; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the John x. 7.
door of the sheep.

I am the door : by me if any man enter in, John x. 9.
he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

Weep not. Luke vii. 13.

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are Math. xi. 28.
heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me ; Math. xi. 29.
for I am meek and lowly in heart : and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden is Math. xi. 30.
light.

All that the Father giveth me shall come John vi. 37. to me ; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

If any man thirst, let him come unto me, John vii. 37.
and drink.

Let not your heart be troubled : ye be- John xiv. 1.
lieve in God, believe also in me.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give John xiv. 27.
unto you : not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

In my Father's house are many mansions : John xiv. 2.
if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, John xiv. 13.

that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

If ye shall ask anything in my name, I will do it. John xiv. 14.

And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever. John xiv. 16.

And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. John xvi. 23.

Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name : ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. John xvi. 24.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor ; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, Luke iv. 18.

To preach the acceptable year of the Lord. Luke iv. 19.

This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears. Luke iv. 21.

And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. John xii. 32.

These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended. John xvi. 1.

But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you. John xvi. 4.

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. John xvi. 33.

If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. John xv. 18.

If ye were of the world, the world would love his own; but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. John xv. 19.

Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. Math. x. 29.

But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Math. x. 30.

Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows. Math. x. 31.

III.

THE HOLY GHOST.

AND I will pray the Father, and he shall John xiv. 16 give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever ;

Even the Spirit of truth ; whom the world John xiv. 17.
 cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him : but ye know him ; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

But the Comforter, which is the Holy John xiv. 26.
 Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

But when the Comforter is come, whom I John xv. 26. will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me.

Nevertheless I tell you the truth ; It is ex- John xvi. 7.
 pedient for you that I go away : for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you ; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

And when he is come, he will reprove the John xvi. 8. world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment :

Of sin, because they believe not on me ; John xvi. 9.

Of righteousness, because I go to my John xvi. 10.
 Father, and ye see me no more ;

Of judgment, because the prince of this John xvi. 11. world is judged.

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is John xvi. 13. come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

He shall glorify me: for he shall receive John xvi. 14. of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

But ye shall receive power, after that the Acts i. 8. Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, Math. xxviii. 19. baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

And when they bring you unto the syna- Luke xii. 11. gogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say.

But when they deliver you up, take no Math. x. 19. thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the Luke xii. 12. same hour what ye ought to say.

For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit Math. x. 20. of your Father which speaketh in you.

It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh John vi. 63. profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

Receive ye the Holy Ghost.

John xx. 22

Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme : Mark iii. 28.

But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation. Mark iii. 29.

Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men : but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. Math. xii. 31.

And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him : but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. Math. xii. 32.

And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him : but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven. Luke xii. 10.

The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth : so is every one that is born of the Spirit. John iii. 8.

THE KINGDOM OF GOD AND
OF HEAVEN.

THE KINGDOM OF GOD AND OF HEAVEN.

THE kingdom of God cometh not with observation : Luke xvii. 20.

Neither shall they say, Lo here ! or, lo there ! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you. Luke xvii. 21.

The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand : repent ye, and believe the gospel. Mark i. 15.

Repent : for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Math. iv. 17.

And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Math. x. 7.

For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. Math. xi. 13.

And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force. Math. xi. 12.

And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. Luke xiii. 29.

And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. Math. viii. 11

Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom. Math. xvi. 28.

Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power. Mark ix. 1.

But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God. Luke ix. 27.

But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. Luke xi. 20.

So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. Luke xxi. 31.

Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you : notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. Luke x. 11.

But rather seek ye the kingdom of God ; and all these things shall be added unto you. Luke xii. 31.

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness ; and all these things shall be added unto you. Math. vi. 33.

For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. Math. v. 20.

Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it? Mark iv. 30.

It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, Mark iv. 31 when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth :

But when it is sown, it groweth up, and Mark iv. 32.
becometh greater than all herbs, and shoot-eth out great branches ; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain Math. xiii. 31.
of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field :

Which indeed is the least of all seeds : but Math. xiii. 32.
when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

Unto what is the kingdom of God like ? Luke xiii. 18.
and whereunto shall I resemble it ?

It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a Luke xiii. 19.
man took, and cast into his garden ; and it grew, and waxed a great tree ; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a Math. xiii. 24.
man which sowed good seed in his field :

But while men slept, his enemy came and Math. xiii. 25.
sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

But when the blade was sprung up, and Math. xiii. 26.
brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

So the servants of the householder came Math. xiii. 27.
and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field ? from whence then hath it tares ?

He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? Math. xiii. 28.

But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Math. xiii. 29.

Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn. Math. xiii. 30.

He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; Math. xiii. 37.

The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; Math. xiii. 38.

The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. Math. xiii. 39.

As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. Math. xiii. 40.

The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; Math. xiii. 41.

And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Math. xiii. 42.

Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. Math. xiii. 43.

So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground; Mark iv. 26.

And should sleep, and rise night and day, Mark iv. 27.
and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

For the earth bringeth forth fruit of her- Mark iv. 28.
self; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

But when the fruit is brought forth, im- Mark iv. 29.
mediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of Luke xiii. 20.
God?

It is like leaven, which a woman took and Luke xiii. 21.
hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, Math. xiii. 33.
which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto Math. xiii. 44.
treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto Math. xiii. 45.
a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:

Who, when he had found one pearl of Math. xiii. 46.
great price, went and sold all that he had,
and bought it.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto Math. xiii. 47.
a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind:

Which, when it was full, they drew to Math. xiii. 48.
shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

So shall it be at the end of the world : the Math. xiii. 49.
angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked
from among the just,

And shall cast them into the furnace of Math. xiii. 50.
fire : there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Therefore every scribe which is instructed Math. xiii. 52.
unto the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is a householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

For the kingdom of heaven is as a man Math. xxv. 14.
travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

And unto one he gave five talents, to an- Math. xxv. 15.
other two, and to another one ; to every man according to his several ability ; and straightway took his journey.

Then he that had received the five talents Math. xxv. 16.
went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

And likewise he that had received two, he Math. xxv. 17.
also gained other two.

But he that had received one went and Math. xxv. 18.
dugged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

After a long time the lord of those ser- Math. xxv. 19.
vants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

And so he that had received five talents Math. xxv. 20.
came and brought other five talents, saying,
Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents :
behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

His lord said unto him, Well done, thou Math. xxv. 21.
good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

He also that had received two talents Math. xxv. 22.
came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

His lord said unto him, Well done, good Math. xxv. 23.
and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

Then he which had received the one talent Math. xxv. 24.
came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strewed:

And I was afraid, and went and hid thy Math. xxv. 25. talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

His lord answered and said unto him, Math. xxv. 26.
Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strewed:

Thou oughtest therefore to have put my Math. xxv. 27.
money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

Take therefore the talent from him, Math. xxv. 28.
and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance : but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath. Math. xxv. 29.

And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness : there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Math. xxv. 30.

A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. Luke xix. 12.

And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come. Luke xix. 13.

But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us. Luke xix. 14.

And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. Luke xix. 15.

Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds. Luke xix. 16.

And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant : because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. Luke xix. 17.

And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds. Luke xix. 18.

And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities. Luke xix. 19.

And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin : Luke xix. 20.

For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man : thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. Luke xix. 21.

And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow :

Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury? Luke xix. 23.

And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds. Luke xix. 24.

(And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.) Luke xix. 25.

For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given ; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him. Luke xix. 26.

But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me. Luke xix. 27.

Behold, a sower went forth to sow ; Math. xiii. 3.

And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up : Math. xiii. 4.

Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth : and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth : Math. xiii. 5.

And when the sun was up, they were scorched ; and because they had no root, they withered away. Math. xiii. 6.

And some fell among thorns ; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them : Math. xiii. 7.

But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. Math. xiii. 8.

Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. Math. xiii. 11.

Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. Math. xiii. 18.

When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. Math. xiii. 19.

But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it ; Math. xiii. 20.

Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while : for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. Math. xiii. 21.

He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word ; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. Math. xiii. 22.

But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it ; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Math. xiii. 23.

Hearken ; Behold, there went out a sower to sow : Mark iv. 3.

And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up. Mark iv. 4.

And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth: Mark iv. 5.

But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. Mark iv. 6.

And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. Mark iv. 7.

And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred. Mark iv. 8.

And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables? Mark iv. 13.

Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables: Mark iv. 11.

The sower soweth the word. Mark iv. 14.

And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. Mark iv. 15.

And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; Mark iv. 16.

And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time ; afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. Mark iv. 17.

And these are they which are sown among thorns ; such as hear the word, Mark iv. 18.

And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. Mark iv. 19.

And these are they which are sown on good ground ; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some a hundred. Mark iv. 20.

A sower went out to sow his seed : and as he sowed, some fell by the way side ; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. Luke viii. 5.

And some fell upon a rock ; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. Luke viii. 6.

And some fell among thorns ; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. Luke viii. 7.

And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit a hundredfold. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. Luke viii. 8.

Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God : but to others in parables ; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. Luke viii. 10.

Now the parable is this : The seed is the word of God. Luke viii. 11.

Those by the way side are they that hear ; Luke viii. 12.
then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

They on the rock are they, which, when Luke viii. 13.
they hear, receive the word with joy ; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

And that which fell among thorns are Luke viii. 14.
they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

But that on the good ground are they, Luke viii. 15. which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

The kingdom of heaven is like unto a cer- Math. xxii. 2.
tain king, which made a marriage for his son,

And sent forth his servants to call them Math. xxii. 3.
that were bidden to the wedding : and they would not come.

Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Math. xxii. 4.
Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner : my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready :
come unto the marriage.

But they made light of it, and went their Math. xxii. 5.
ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise :

And the remnant took his servants, and Math. xxii. 6.
entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. Math. xxii. 7.

Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Math. xxii. 8.

Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. Math. xxii. 9.

So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. Math. xxii. 10.

And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: Math. xxii. 11.

And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Math. xxii. 12.

Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Math. xxii. 13.

For many are called, but few are chosen. Math. xxii. 14.

And, behold, there are last which shall be first; and there are first which shall be last. Luke xiii. 30.

Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. Math. xi. 11.

But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day Math. xxvi. 29.

when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. Mark xiv. 25.

For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. Luke xxii. 18.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Math. vii. 21.

THE KINGDOM ON EARTH.

THE KINGDOM ON EARTH.

I.

THE CHURCH.

WHO is my mother? and who are my brethren? Math. xii. 48.

Behold my mother and my brethren ! Math. xii. 49.

My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it. Luke viii. 21.

For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother. Math. xii. 50.

Who is my mother, or my brethren? Mark iii. 33.

Behold my mother and my brethren ! Mark iii. 34.

For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother. Mark iii. 35.

But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth : for the Father seeketh such to worship him. John iii. 23.

God is a Spirit : and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. John iii. 24.

By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. John xiii. 35.

Fear not, little flock ; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Luke xii. 32.

Ye are the salt of the earth : but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Math. v. 13.

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Math. v. 14.

Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven ; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Math. xviii. 18.

Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them ; and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained. John xx. 23.

Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. Math. xviii. 19.

For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. Math. xviii. 20.

Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick ; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Math. v. 15.

And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church ; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Math. xvi. 18.

And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven : and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven ; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Math. xvi. 19.

And have ye not read this Scripture ; The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner : Mark xii. 10.

He that is not with me is against me ; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. Luke xi. 23.

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word ; John xvii. 20.

That they all may be one ; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us : that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. John xvii. 21.

And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved : but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Math. xxiv. 22.

And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. Math. xxiv. 31.

And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved : but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days. Mark xiii. 20.

And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven. Mark xiii. 27.

And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church : but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican. Math. xviii. 17

THE HOUSE.

It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer ; but ye have made it a den of thieves. Math. xxi. 13.

Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves. Mark xi. 17.

Take these things hence ; make not my Father's house a house of merchandise. John ii. 16.

It is written, My house is the house of prayer ; but ye have made it a den of thieves. Luke xix. 46.

Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing ; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor ! Math. xxiii. 16.

Ye fools and blind : for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold? Math. xxiii. 17.

And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing ; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty. Math. xxiii. 18.

Ye fools and blind : for whether is greater, the gift or the altar that sanctifieth the gift? Math. xxiii. 19.

Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon. Math. xxiii. 20.

And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein. Math. xxiii. 21.

II.

THE LAW, THE SCRIPTURES, AND
THE PROPHETS.

THE law and the prophets were until Luke xvi. 16.
John : since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

For all the prophets and the law prophe- Math. xi. 13
sied until John.

Think not that I am come to destroy the Math. v. 17.
law, or the prophets : I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and Math. v. 18 earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

And it is easier for heaven and earth to Luke xvi. 17.
pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

For I say unto you, that this that is writ- Luke xxii. 37.
ten must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors : for the things concerning me have an end.

But how then shall the scriptures be ful- Math. xxvi. 54 filled, that thus it must be ?

The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is Mark xiv. 21.
written of him : but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed ! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was Luke xxii. 22. determined : but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed !

But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause. John xv. 25.

Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day. Luke xxiv. 46.

O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken. Luke xxiv. 25.

Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? John x. 34.

If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the Scripture cannot be broken ; John x. 35.

Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest ; because I said, I am the Son of God? John x. 36.

It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true. John viii. 17.

I am one that bear witness of myself ; and the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me. John viii. 18.

Did ye never read in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner : this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Math xxi. 42.

And have ye not read this Scripture ; The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner? Mark xii. 10.

What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner? Luke xx. 17.

This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Mark xii. 11.

Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. John v. 39.

Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. John v. 45.

For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. John v. 46.

THE OLD AND NEW DISPENSATIONS.

THINK not that I am come to destroy Math. v. 17.
the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

The law and the prophets were until Luke xvi. 16.
John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

Your fathers did eat manna in the wilder- John vi. 49.
ness, and are dead.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave John vi. 32.
you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

For the bread of God is he which cometh John vi. 33. down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

This is that bread which came down from John vi. 58.
heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna,
and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live forever.

But the hour cometh, and now is, when John iv. 23.
the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

Drink ye all of it; Math. xxvi. 27.

For this is my blood of the new testa- Math. xxvi. 28.
ment, which is shed for many for the remis-which is shed for many.

This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. Luke xxii. 20.

which was for to come.

But I say unto you, That Elias is indeed Mark ix. 13.

ever they listed, as it is written of him.

Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness John v. 33.
unto the truth.

He was a burning and a shining light : and John v. 35.
ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

What went ye out into the wilderness to Math. xi. 7.

But what went ye out for to see? A man Math. xi. 8. clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

But what went ye out for to see? A Math. xi. 9.

For this is he, of whom it is written, Be- Math. xi. 10.
hold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

Verily I say unto you, Among them that Math. xi. 11.
are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist : notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind? Luke vii. 24.

But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously appavelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. Luke vii. 25.

I.

THE DISCIPLES.

YE are they which have continued with me in my temptations. Luke xxii. 28.

Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. Math. xix. 28.

And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me ; Luke xxii. 29.

That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. Luke xxii. 30.

Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. Math. xiii. 11.

Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God : but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables :

Mark iv. 11.

That seeing they may see, and not perceive ; and hearing they may hear, and not understand ; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

Mark iv. 12.

Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God : but to others in parables ; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

Luke viii. 10.

But blessed are your eyes, for they see : and your ears, for they hear.

Math. xiii. 16.

For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them ; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

Math. xiii. 17.

Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see :

Luke x. 23.

For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them ; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

Luke x. 24.

Have ye understood all these things ?

Math. xiii. 51.

I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. John xvi. 12.

Doth this offend you? John vi. 61.

Will ye also go away? John vi. 67.

Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? John vi. 70.

Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me. Math. xxi. 2.

shall say, The Lord hath need of them ; and straightway he will send them.

And if any man say unto you, Why do ye Mark xi. 3.
this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him ;
and straightway he will send him hither.

And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose Luke xix. 31. him ? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

These things have I spoken unto you, John xiv. 25.
being yet present with you.

Neither be ye called masters : for one is Math. xxiii. 10.
your Master, even Christ.

When I sent you without purse, and scrip, Luke xxii. 35.
and shoes, lacked ye any thing?

But now, he that hath a purse, let him Luke xxii. 36.
take it, and likewise his scrip : and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

Then shall they deliver you up to be Math. xxiv. 9. afflicted, and shall kill you : and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

But take heed to yourselves : for they Mark xiii. 9. shall deliver you up to councils ; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten : and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

But when they shall lead you, and deliver Mark xiii. 11

you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate : but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye : for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake : but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. Mark xiii. 13.

For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. Luke xxi. 15.

And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends ; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death. Luke xxi. 16.

John xi. 39.

Said I not unto thee, that, if thou would-est believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

John xi. 40.

Lazarus, come forth.

John xi. 43.

Loose him, and let him go.

John xi. 44.

CIRCUMSTANCE.

First Miraculous Draught of Fishes.

LAUNCH out into the deep, and let Luke v. 4.
down your nets for a draught.

Stilling of the Tempest.

Peace, be still.

Mark iv. 39.

Walking on the Sea.

Be of good cheer ; it is I ; be not afraid. Math. xiv. 27.

Be of good cheer : it is I ; be not afraid. Mark vi. 50.

It is I ; be not afraid. John vi. 20.

Come. Math. xiv. 29.

O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou Math. xiv. 31.
doubt ?

Finding of the Tribute Money.

Notwithstanding, lest we should offend Math. xvii. 27.
them, go thou to the sea, and cast a hook,
and take up the fish that first cometh up ;
and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money : that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

Cursing of the Fig Tree.

Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward Math. xxi. 19.

Second Miraculous Draught of Fishes.

Cast the net on the right side of the ship, John xxi. 6.
and ye shall find.

III.

SENDING OF THE DISCIPLES.

THE TWELVE APOSTLES.

GO not into the way of the Gentiles, and Math. x. 5.
into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not :

But go rather to the lost sheep of the Math. x. 6.
house of Israel.

And as ye go, preach, saying, The king- Math. x. 7.
dom of heaven is at hand.

Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise Math. x. 8.
the dead, cast out devils : freely ye have received, freely give.

Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass Math. x. 9.
in your purses ;

Nor scrip for your journey, neither two Math. x. 10.
coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves : for the workman is worthy of his meat.

Take nothing for your journey, neither Luke ix. 3. staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money ; neither have two coats apiece.

And into whatsoever city or town ye shall Math. x. 11.
enter, inquire who in it is worthy ; and there abide till ye go thence.

In what place soever ye enter into a Mark vi. 10.
house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

And whatsoever house ye enter into, there Luke ix. 4.
abide, and thence depart.

And when ye come into a house, salute it. Math. x. 12.

And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it : but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. Math. x. 13.

And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. Math. x. 14.

And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them. Luke ix. 5.

Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city. Math. x. 15.

And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city. Mark vi. 11.

Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves : be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. Math. x. 16.

But beware of men : for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues ; Math. x. 17.

And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. Math. x. 18.

But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak : for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak. Math. x. 19.

For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. Math. x. 20.

And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child : and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death. Math. x. 21.

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake : but he that endureth to the end shall be saved. Math. x. 22.

They shall put you out of the synagogues : yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. John xvi. 2.

And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me. John xvi. 3.

But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another : for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come. Math. x. 23.

The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord. Math. x. 24.

It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household ? Math. x. 25.

Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you ; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. John xv. 20.

But all these things will they do unto you John xv. 21.
for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

Fear them not therefore ; for there is Math. x. 26.
nothing covered, that shall not be revealed ;
and hid, that shall not be known.

What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye Math. x. 27.
in light : and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

He that receiveth you receiveth me ; and Math. x. 40.
he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

THE SEVENTY.

Go your ways : behold, I send you forth Luke x. 3.
as lambs among wolves.

Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes : Luke x. 4.
and salute no man by the way.

And into whatsoever house ye enter, first Luke x. 5.
say, Peace be to this house.

And if the son of peace be there, your Luke x. 6.
peace shall rest upon it : if not, it shall turn to you again.

And in the same house remain, eating Luke x. 7.
and drinking such things as they give : for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

And into whatsoever city ye enter, and Luke x. 8.
they receive you, eat such things as are set before you :

And heal the sick that are therein, and Luke x. 9. say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

But into whatsoever city ye enter, and Luke x. 10.
they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

Even the very dust of your city, which Luke x. 11.
cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you :
notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

But I say unto you, that it shall be more Luke x. 12.
tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

He that heareth you heareth me ; and he Luke x. 16 that despiseth you despiseth me ; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

Behold, I give unto you power to tread Luke x. 19.
on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that Luke x. 20.
the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

IV.

SUFFERINGS AND TEMPTATIONS.

THE Son of man must suffer many things. Luke ix. 22.

But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation. Luke xvii. 25.

Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought. Mark ix. 12.

But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them. Math. xvii. 12.

Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer. Luke xxiv. 46.

A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house. Math. xiii. 57.

A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house. Mark vi. 4.

Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country. Luke iv. 24.

My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me. Math. xxvi. 38.

My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch. Mark xiv. 34.

Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. Luke xxii. 28.

V.

CHRIST'S PRAYERS.

FATHER, glorify thy name. John xii. 28.

Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. John xi. 41.

And I knew that thou hearest me always : but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me. John xi. 42.

I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Math. xi. 25.

Even so, Father ; for so it seemed good in thy sight. Math. xi. 26.

I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes : even so, Father ; for so it seemed good in thy sight. Luke x. 21.

Father, the hour is come ; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee : John xvii. 1.

As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. John xvii. 2.

And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. John xvii. 3.

I have glorified thee on the earth : I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. John xvii. 4.

And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. John xvii. 5.

I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world : thine they were, and thou gavest them me ; and they have kept thy word. John xvii. 6.

Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee. John xvii. 7.

For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me ; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me. John xvii. 8.

I pray for them : I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me ; for they are thine. John xvii. 9.

And all mine are thine, and thine are mine ; and I am glorified in them. John xvii. 10.

And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. John xvii. 11.

While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name : those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition ; that the Scripture might be fulfilled. John xvii. 12.

And now come I to thee ; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves. John xvii. 13.

I have given them thy word ; and the John xvii. 14.

world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. John xvii. 15.

They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. John xvii. 16.

Sanctify them through thy truth : thy word is truth. John xvii. 17.

As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. John xvii. 18.

And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. John xvii. 19.

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word ; John xvii. 20.

That they all may be one ; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us : that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. John xvii. 21.

And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them ; that they may be one, even as we are one : John xvii. 22.

I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one ; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me. John xvii. 23.

Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am ; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me : for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. John xvii. 24.

O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me. John xvii. 25.

And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it; that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them. John xvii. 26.

Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder. Math. xxvi. 36.

O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. Math. xxvi. 39.

O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. Math. xxvi. 42.

Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless, not what I will, but what thou wilt. Mark xiv. 36.

Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but thine, be done. Luke xxii. 42.

After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Math. vi. 9.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Math. vi. 10.

Give us this day our daily bread. Math. vi. 11.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. Math. vi. 12.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen. Math. vi. 13.

When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth. Luke xi. 2.

Give us day by day our daily bread. Luke xi. 3.

And forgive us our sins ; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation ; but deliver us from evil. Luke xi. 4.

VI.

THE LAST SUPPER.

GO and prepare us the passover, that we may eat. Luke xxii. 8.

Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water : follow him. Mark xiv. 13.

And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? Mark xiv. 14.

Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water ; follow him into the house where he entereth in. Luke xxii. 10.

And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples. Luke xxii. 11.

Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand ; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. Math. xxvi. 18.

And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared : there make ready for us. Mark xiv. 15.

And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished : there make ready. Luke xxii. 12.

With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer : Luke xxii. 15.

For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. Luke xxii. 16.

Take, eat ; this is my body. Math. xxvi. 26.

Take, eat ; this is my body. Mark xiv. 22.

This is my body which is given for you : this do in remembrance of me. Luke xxii. 19.

Take, eat ; this is my body, which is broken for you : this do in remembrance of me. 1 Cor. xi. 24.

This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. Luke xxii. 20.

Take this, and divide it among yourselves. Luke xxii. 17.

This cup is the new testament in my blood : this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. 1 Cor. xi. 25.

Drink ye all of it. Math. xxvi. 27.

For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Math. xxvi. 28.

This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many. Mark xiv. 24.

But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. Math. xxvi. 29.

Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. Mark xiv. 25.

For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. Luke xxii. 18.

VII.

THE BETRAYAL.

THE Son of man shall be betrayed into Math. xvii. 22.
the hands of men.

Ye know that after two days is the feast Math. xxvi. 2. of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

Verily I say unto you, that one of you Math. xxvi. 21.
shall betray me.

I speak not of you all: I know whom I John xiii. 18.
have chosen: but that the Scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

Now I tell you before it come, that, when John xiii. 19.
it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

Verily I say unto you, One of you which Mark xiv. 18.
eateth with me shall betray me.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of John xiii. 21.
you shall betray me.

But, behold, the hand of him that betray- Luke xxii. 21.
eth me is with me on the table.

He that dippeth his hand with me in the Math. xxvi. 23.
dish, the same shall betray me.

It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with Mark xiv. 20.
me in the dish.

He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when John xiii. 26.
I have dipped it.

Thou hast said. Math. xxvi. 25

That thou doest, do quickly. John xiii. 27.

The Son of man goeth as it is written of him : but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed ! it had been good for that man if he had not been born. Math. xxvi. 24.

The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him ; but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed ! good were it for that man if he had never been born. Mark xiv. 21.

And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined : but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed ! Luke xxii. 22.

Rise, let us be going : behold, he is at hand that doth betray me. Math. xxvi. 46.

Rise up, let us go ; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand. Mark xiv. 42.

Friend, wherefore art thou come ? Math. xxvi. 50.

Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss ? Luke xxii. 48.

Whom seek ye ? John xviii. 4.

I am he. John xviii. 5.

Whom seek ye ? John xviii. 7.

I have told you that I am he ; if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way. John xviii. 8.

Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me ? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me. Math. xxvi. 55.

Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me ? Mark xiv. 48.

I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not : but the Scriptures must be fulfilled. Mark xiv. 49.

Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves? Luke xxii. 52.

When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me : but this is your hour, and the power of darkness. Luke xxii. 53.

If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil : but if well, why smitest thou me? John xviii. 23.

VIII.

THE CRUCIFIXION.

NOW is the judgment of this world : John xii. 31.
now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

Let these sayings sink down into your Luke ix. 44.
ears : for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

For I say unto you, that this that is writ- Luke xxii. 37.
ten must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors : for
the things concerning me have an end.

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the John iii. 14.
wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up.

And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, John xii. 32.
will draw all men unto me.

When ye have lifted up the Son of man, John viii. 28.
then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself ; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

IX.

WORDS ON THE CROSS.

FATHER, forgive them ; for they know not what they do. Luke xxiii. 34.

Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise. Luke xxiii. 43.

Woman, behold thy son ! John xix. 26.

Behold thy mother ! John xix. 27.

Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani ? Math. xxvii. 46.

Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani ? Mark xv. 34.

I thirst. John xix. 28.

It is finished. John xix. 30.

Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit. Luke xxiii. 46.

X.

DEATH, RESURRECTION, AND ASCENSION.

THE hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. John xii. 23.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone : but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished. Luke xviii. 31

The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day. Luke ix. 22.

For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on :

And they shall scourge him, and put him to death ; and the third day he shall rise again. Luke xviii. 33.

Behold, we go up to Jerusalem ; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him : and the third day he shall rise again. Math. xx. 18.

Behold, we go up to Jerusalem ; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief Mark x. 33.

priests, and unto the scribes ; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles :

And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him ; and the third day he shall rise again. Mark x. 34.

The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him ; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day. Mark ix. 31.

The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men : Math. xvii. 22.

And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. Math. xvii. 23.

But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee. Math. xxvi. 32.

But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee. Mark xiv. 28.

Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead. Math. xvii. 9.

For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly ; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. Math. xii. 40.

Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. John ii. 19.

A little while, and ye shall not see me : and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father. John xvi. 16.

Do ye inquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me : and again, a little while, and ye shall see me ? John xvi. 19.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye John xvi. 20.

shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice ; and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come : but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. John xvi. 21.

And ye now therefore have sorrow : but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you. John xvi. 22.

These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs : but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father. John xvi. 25.

At that day ye shall ask in my name : and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you. John xvi. 26.

Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me. John vii. 33.

Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me : and where I am, thither ye cannot come. John vii. 34.

I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins : whither I go, ye cannot come. John viii. 21.

Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me ; and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come ; so now I say to you. John xiii. 33.

Let her alone : against the day of my burying hath she kept this. John xii. 7.

For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial. Math. xxvi. 12.

She hath done what she could : she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Mark xiv. 8.

But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days. Luke v. 35.

But now I go my way to him that sent me ; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? John xvi. 5.

But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. John xvi. 6.

Nevertheless I tell you the truth ; It is expedient for you that I go away : for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you ; but if I depart, I will send him unto
you. John xvi. 7.

Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more ; but ye see me : because I live, ye shall live also. John xiv. 19.

And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe. John xiv. 29.

But I have a baptism to be baptized with ;
and how am I straitened till it be accomplished ! Luke xii. 50.

Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. John x. 17.

No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again.
This commandment have I received of my Father. John x. 18

Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now John xvi. 32.
come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone : and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

All ye shall be offended because of me Math. xxvi. 31.
this night : for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

All ye shall be offended because of me Mark xiv. 27.
this night : for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

Whither I go, thou canst not follow me John xiii. 36.
now ; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

What and if ye shall see the Son of man John vi. 62.
ascend up where he was before?

And no man hath ascended up to heaven, John iii. 13.
but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

Touch me not ; for I am not yet ascended John xx. 17.
to my Father : but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father ; and to my God, and your God.

XI.

UTTERANCES AFTER THE RESUR-RECTION.

WOMAN, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? John xx. 15.

Mary. John xx. 16.

Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. John xx. 17.

All hail. Math. xxviii. 9.

Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me. Math. xxviii. 10.

What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad? Luke xxiv. 17.

What things? Luke xxiv. 19.

O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: Luke xxiv. 25.

Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? Luke xxiv. 26.

Peace be unto you. Luke xxiv. 36.

Peace be unto you. John xx. 19.

Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. John xx. 21.

Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Luke xxiv. 38.

Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit Luke xxiv. 39.

hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

Have ye here any meat?

Luke xxiv. 41.

These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

Luke xxiv. 44.

Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day :

Luke xxiv. 46.

And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

Luke xxiv. 47.

And ye are witnesses of these things.

Luke xxiv. 48.

And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you : but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

Luke xxiv. 49.

Receive ye the Holy Ghost :

John xx. 22.

Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them ; and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained.

John xx. 23.

Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

Mark xvi. 15.

They shall take up serpents ; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

Peace be unto you.

John xx. 26.

Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side; and be not faithless, but believing.

John xx. 27.

Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

John xx. 29.

Children, have ye any meat?

John xxi. 5.

Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find.

John xxi. 6.

Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

John xxi. 10.

Come and dine.

John xxi. 12.

Follow me.

John xxi. 19.

If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.

John xxi. 22.

Wait for the promise of the Father, which ye have heard of me.

Acts i. 4.

All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

Math. xxviii. 18.

For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

Acts i. 5.

It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

Acts i. 7.

But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Acts i. 8.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, Math.xxviii.19.
baptizing them in the name of the Father,
and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost :

Teaching them to observe all things what- Math.xxviii.20.
soever I have commanded you : and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

THE PROPHECIES.

I.

SECOND COMING, AND EVENTS PRECEDING.

HEREAFTER shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Math. xxvi. 64.

I am : and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Mark xiv. 62.

Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God. Luke xxii. 69.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man. John i. 51.

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. Math. xxv. 1.

And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. Math. xxv. 2.

They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them : Math. xxv. 3.

But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. Math. xxv. 4.

While the bridegroom tarried, they all Math. xxv. 5.
slumbered and slept.

And at midnight there was a cry made, Math. xxv. 6.
Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed Math. xxv. 7.
their lamps.

And the foolish said unto the wise, Give Math. xxv. 8.
us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

But the wise answered, saying, Not so; Math. xxv. 9.
lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

And while they went to buy, the bride- Math. xxv. 10.
groom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

Afterward came also the other virgins, Math. xxv. 11.
saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

But he answered and said, Verily I say Math. xxv. 12.
unto you, I know you not.

Watch therefore; for ye know neither the Math. xxv. 13.
day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of Math. xxiv. 6.
wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

For nation shall rise against nation, and Math. xxiv. 7. kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

All these are the beginning of sorrows. Math. xxiv. 8.

Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you : and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. Math. xxiv. 9.

And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. Math. xxiv. 10.

And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. Math. xxiv. 11.

And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. Math. xxiv. 12.

But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. Math. xxiv. 13.

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations ; and then shall the end come. Math. xxiv. 14.

When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand,) Math. xxiv. 15.

Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains : Math. xxiv. 16.

Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house : Math. xxiv. 17.

Neither let him which is in the field re- turn back to take his clothes. Math. xxiv. 18.

And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days ! Math. xxiv. 19.

But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day : Math. xxiv. 20.

For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. Math. xxiv. 21.

And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved : but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Math. xxiv. 22.

Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there ; believe it not. Math. xxiv. 23.

For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders ; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Math. xxiv. 24.

Behold, I have told you before. Math. xxiv. 25.

Wherefore, if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert ; go not forth : behold, he is in the secret chambers ; believe it not. Math. xxiv. 26.

For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west ; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Math. xxiv. 27.

For wheresoever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathereth together. Math. xxiv. 28.

Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken : Math. xxiv. 29.

And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven : and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. Math. xxiv. 30.

And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather Math. xxiv. 31.

together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Now learn a parable of the fig tree ; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh : Math. xxiv. 32.

So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. Math. xxiv. 33.

Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled. Math. xxiv. 34.

Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. Math. xxiv. 35.

But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. Math. xxiv. 36.

But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Math. xxiv. 37.

For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, Math. xxiv. 38.

And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away ; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Math. xxiv. 39.

Then shall two be in the field ; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Math. xxiv. 40.

Two women shall be grinding at the mill ; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Math. xxiv. 41.

Watch therefore ; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Math. xxiv. 42.

But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and Math. xxiv. 43.

would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

Therefore be ye also ready : for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. Math. xxiv. 44.

Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season ? Math. xxiv. 45.

Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Math. xxiv. 46.

Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods. Math. xxiv. 47.

But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days. Mark ii. 20.

And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled : for such things must needs be ; but the end shall not be yet. Mark xiii. 7.

For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom : and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles : these are the beginnings of sorrows. Mark xiii. 8.

But take heed to yourselves : for they shall deliver you up to councils ; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten : and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them. Mark xiii. 9.

And the gospel must first be published among all nations. Mark xiii. 10.

But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye Mark xiii. 11.

shall speak, neither do ye premeditate ; but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye : for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.

Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son ; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death. Mark xiii. 12.

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake : but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. Mark xiii. 13.

But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judea flee to the mountains : Mark xiii. 14.

And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take anything out of his house : Mark xiii. 15.

And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment. Mark xiii. 16.

But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days ! Mark xiii. 17.

And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter. Mark xiii. 18.

For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be. Mark xiii. 19.

And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved : but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days. Mark xiii. 20.

And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not: Mark xiii. 21.

For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. Mark xiii. 22.

But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things. Mark xiii. 23.

But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, Mark xiii. 24.

And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. Mark xiii. 25.

And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. Mark xiii. 26.

And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven. Mark xiii. 27.

Now learn a parable of the fig tree: When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near: Mark xiii. 28.

So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors. Mark xiii. 29.

Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done. Mark xiii. 30.

Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. Mark xiii. 31.

But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father. Mark xiii. 32.

Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. Mark xiii. 33.

For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Mark xiii. 34.

Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrow-ing, or in the morning: Mark xiii. 35.

Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. Mark xiii. 36.

For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day. Luke xvii. 24.

And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. Luke xvii. 26.

But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation. Luke xvii. 25.

They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. Luke xvii. 27.

Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; Luke xvii. 28.

But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Luke xvii. 29.

Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. Luke xvii. 30.

In that day, he which shall be upon the Luke xvii. 31.

housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away : and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

Remember Lot's wife.

Luke xvii. 32.

I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed ; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

Luke xvii. 34.

Two women shall be grinding together ; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

Luke xvii. 35.

Two men shall be in the field ; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

Luke xvii. 36.

Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

Luke xvii. 37.

As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

Luke xxi. 6.

Take heed that ye be not deceived : for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ ; and the time draweth near : go ye not therefore after them.

Luke xxi. 8.

But when ye shall hear of wars and cōmotions, be not terrified : for these things must first come to pass ; but the end is not by and by.

Luke xxi. 9.

Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom :

Luke xxi. 10.

And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences ; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

Luke xxi. 11.

But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.

Luke xxi. 12.

And it shall turn to you for a testimony. Luke xxi. 13.

Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer : Luke xxi. 14.

For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. Luke xxi. 15.

And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends ; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death. Luke xxi. 16.

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. Luke xxi. 17.

But there shall not a hair of your head perish. Luke xxi. 18.

In your patience, possess ye your souls. Luke xxi. 19.

And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Luke xxi. 20.

Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains ; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out ; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto. Luke xxi. 21.

* For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. Luke xxi. 22.

But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days ! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people. Luke xxi. 23.

And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations : and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. Luke xxi. 24.

And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars ; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity ; the sea and the waves roaring ;

Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth : for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. Luke xxi. 25.

And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. Luke xxi. 26.

And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads ; for your redemption draweth nigh. Luke xxi. 27.

Behold the fig tree, and all the trees ;

When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand. Luke xxi. 28.

So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. Luke xxi. 29.

Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled. Luke xxi. 30.

Heaven and earth shall pass away ; but my words shall not pass away. Luke xxi. 31.

And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. Luke xxi. 32.

For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. Luke xxi. 35.

Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man. Luke xxi. 36.

Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning ; Luke xii. 35.

And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding ; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. Luke xii. 36.

Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching : verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. Luke xii. 37.

And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. Luke xii. 38.

And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through. Luke xii. 39.

Be ye therefore ready also : for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not. Luke xii. 40.

Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season ? Luke xii. 42.

Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Luke xii. 43.

Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath. Luke xii. 44.

But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; Luke xii. 45.

The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. Luke xii. 46.

And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. Luke xii. 47.

But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more. Luke xii. 48.

Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words, in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. Mark viii. 38.

For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels. Luke ix. 26.

Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth? Luke xviii. 8.

II.

JERUSALEM.

O JERUSALEM, Jerusalem, thou that Math. xxiii. 37.
 killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not !

Behold, your house is left unto you Math. xxiii. 38.
 desolate.

For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me Math. xxiii. 39.
 henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

If thou hadst known, even thou, at least Luke xix. 42.
 in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace ! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

For the days shall come upon thee, that Luke xix. 43.
 thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side.

And shall lay thee even with the ground, Luke xix. 44.
 and thy children within thee ; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another ; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the Luke xiii. 34.
 prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee ; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not !

Behold, your house is left unto you desolate : and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Luke xiii. 35.

See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. Math. xxiv. 2.

Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. Mark xiii. 2.

Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. Luke xxiii. 28.

For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. Luke xxiii. 29.

Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us ; and to the hills, Cover us. Luke xxiii. 30.

For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry? Luke xxiii. 31.

Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. John iv. 21.

And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Luke xxi. 20.

Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains ; and let them which are in Luke xxi. 21.

the midst of it depart out ; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

For these be the days of vengeance, that Luke xxi. 22.
all things which are written may be fulfilled.

But woe unto them that are with child, Luke xxi. 23.
and to them that give suck, in those days !
for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

And they shall fall by the edge of the Luke xxi. 24.
sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations : and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

But I say unto you, Swear not at all ; Math. v. 34.
neither by heaven ; for it is God's throne :

Nor by the earth ; for it is his footstool : Math. v. 35.
neither by Jerusalem ; for it is the city of the great King.

III.

THE JEWS.

I AM not sent but unto the lost sheep of Math. xv. 24.
the house of Israel.

But go rather to the lost sheep of the Math. x. 6.
house of Israel.

It is not meet to take the children's bread, Math. xv. 26.
and to cast it to dogs.

Let the children first be filled : for it is Mark vii. 27. not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

Ye worship ye know not what : we know John iv. 22.
what we worship ; for salvation is of the Jews.

And I say unto you, That many shall come Math. viii. 11.
from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven :

But the children of the kingdom shall be Math. viii. 12.
cast out into outer darkness : there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

And they shall fall by the edge of the Luke xxi. 24.
sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations : and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

Did not Moses give you the law, and yet John vii. 19.
none of you keepeth the law ? Why go ye about to kill me ?

I have done one work, and ye all marvel. John vii. 21.

I know that ye are Abraham's seed ; but John viii. 37.
ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

Many good works have I shewed you from John x. 32.
my Father ; for which of those works do ye stone me ?

I speak that which I have seen with my John viii. 38.
Father : and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

If ye were Abraham's children, ye would John viii. 39.
do the works of Abraham.

But now ye seek to kill me, a man that John viii. 40.
hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God : this did not Abraham.

Ye do the deeds of your father. John viii. 41.

If God were your Father, ye would love John viii. 42.
me : for I proceeded forth and came from God : neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

Why do ye not understand my speech ? John viii. 43.
even because ye cannot hear my word.

Ye are of your father the devil, and the John viii. 44.
lusts of your father ye will do : he was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own : for he is a liar, and the father of it.

And because I tell you the truth, ye be- John viii. 45.
lieve me not.

Which of you convinceth me of sin ? And John viii. 46.
if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me ?

He that is of God heareth God's words : John viii. 47.
ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

I have not a devil ; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me. John viii. 49.

If ye were blind, ye should have no sin : John ix. 41.
but now ye say, We see ; therefore your sin remaineth.

But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. John x. 26.

Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. Math. xxi. 31.

For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not ; but the publicans and the harlots believed him : and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him. Ma'th. xxi. 32.

If I tell you, ye will not believe : Luke xxii. 67.

And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go. Luke xxii. 68.

But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, Math. xi. 16.

And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced ; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented. Math. xi. 17.

For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil. Math. xi. 18.

The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. Math. xi. 19.
But wisdom is justified of her children.

Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like? Luke vii. 31.

They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept. Luke vii. 32.

For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil. Luke vii. 33.

The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! Luke vii. 34.

But wisdom is justified of all her children. Luke vii. 35.

My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. John xviii. 36.

I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing. John xviii. 20.

The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, Math. xxii. 2.

And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come. Math. xxii. 3.

Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fat- Math. xxii. 4.

lings are killed, and all things are ready :
come unto the marriage.

But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise : Math. xxii. 5.

And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them. Math. xxii. 6.

But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth : and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. Math. xxii. 7.

THE SCRIBES, PHARISEES, AND SADDUCEES.

THE scribes and the Pharisees sit in Math. xxiii. 2.
Moses' seat :

All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do ; but do not ye after their works : for they say, and do not. Math. xxiii. 3.

Beware of the scribes, which love to go Mark xii. 38.
in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces,

And the chief seats in the synagogues, and Mark xii. 39.
the uppermost rooms at feasts.

Beware of the scribes, which desire ^{to} Luke xx. 46.
walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts ;

Which devour widows' houses, and for a Luke xx. 47.
shew make long prayers : the same shall receive greater damnation.

Which devour widows' houses, and for a Mark xii. 40.
pretence make long prayers : these shall receive greater damnation.

Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, Luke xii. 1.
which is hypocrisy.

For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders ; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. Math. xxiii. 4.

But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments, Math. xxiii. 5.

And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, Math. xxiii. 6.

And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi. Math. xxiii. 7.

Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. Math. xv. 14.

Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod. Mark viii. 15.

Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. Math. xvi. 6.

But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in. Math. xxiii. 13.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation. Math. xxiii. 14.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves. Math. xxiii. 15.

Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. Luke xi. 46.

Woe unto you, lawyers ! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge : ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered. Luke xi. 52.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. Math. xxiii. 25.

Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter ; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness. Luke xi. 39.

Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. Math. xxiii. 26.

Ye fools, did not he, that made that which is without, make that which is within also ? Luke xi. 40.

But rather give alms of such things as ye have ; and, behold, all things are clean unto you. Luke xi. 41.

But woe unto you, Pharisees ! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God : these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Luke xi. 42.

Woe unto you, Pharisees ! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets. Luke xi. 43.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Math. xxiii. 27

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them. Luke xi. 44.

Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. Math. xxiii. 28.

But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you. John v. 42.

Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, Math. xv. 7.

This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips ; but their heart is far from me. Math. xv. 8.

But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. Math. xv. 9.

Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Mark vii. 6.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, Math. xxiii. 29.

And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. Math. xxiii. 30.

Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets. Math. xxiii. 31.

Woe unto you ! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. Luke xi. 47.

Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers : for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres. Luke xi. 48.

Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. Math. xxiii. 32.

O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. Math. xii. 34.

Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell? Math. xxiii. 33.

Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes : and some of them ye shall kill and crucify ; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city. Math. xxiii. 34.

Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute : Luke xi. 49.

That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar : Math. xxiii. 35.

That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation ; Luke xi. 50.

From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple : verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation. Luke xi. 51.

Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation. Math. xxiii. 36.

V.

CALLING OF THE GENTILES.

THEREFORE say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. Math. xxi. 43.

And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. Math. viii. 11.

And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. Luke xiii. 29.

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. Math. xxiv. 14.

And the gospel must first be published among all nations. Mark xiii. 10.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Math. xxviii. 19.

Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mark xvi. 15.

Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day; Luke xxiv. 46.

And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Luke xxiv. 47.

The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Math. xxii. 8.

Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. Math. xxii. 9.

So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good : and the wedding was furnished with guests. Math. xxii. 10.

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold : them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice ; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. John x. 16.

whom thou now hast is not thy husband : in that saidst thou truly.

ZACCHEUS, THE PUBLICAN.

Mark x. 36.

Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

Math. xx. 22.

Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with : but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

Math. xx. 23.

Ye know not what ye ask : can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

Mark x. 38.

Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized :

I will also ask of you one question, and Mark xi. 29.

THE SPIRITUAL WORLD.

I.

THE SOUL — SPIRIT.

YE know not what manner of spirit ye are of. Luke ix. 55.

. That which is born of the flesh is flesh ; John iii. 6.
and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

A spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. Luke xxiv. 39.

In your patience possess ye your souls. Luke xxi. 19.

And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul : but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Math. x. 28.

For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul ? Mark viii. 36.

Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul ? Mark viii. 37.

For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul ? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul ? Math. xvi. 26.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me ; for I am meek and lowly in heart : and ye shall find rest unto your souls. Math. xi. 29.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. Math. xxii. 37.

I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years ; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. Luke xii. 19.

But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee : then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided. Luke xii. 20.

My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death : tarry ye here, and watch with me. Math. xxvi. 38.

My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death : tarry ye here, and watch. Mark xiv. 34.

Now is my soul troubled. John xii. 27.

Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit. Luke xxiii. 46.

II.

SPIRITUAL FOOD.

LABOUR not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you : for him hath God the Father sealed. John vi. 27.

It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Math. iv. 4.

It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. Luke iv. 4.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven ; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. John vi. 32.

For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world. John vi. 33.

I am that bread of life. John vi. 48.

I am the living bread which came down from heaven : if any man eat of this bread, he shall live forever : and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. John vi. 53.

Take, eat ; this is my body. Math. xxvi. 26.

Take, eat ; this is my body. Mark xiv. 22.

This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many. Mark xiv. 24.

This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. Luke xxii. 20.

This cup is the new testament in my blood : this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. 1 Cor. xi. 25.

Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life ; and I will raise him up at the last day. John vi. 54.

For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. John vi. 55.

He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. John vi. 56.

As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father ; so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. John vi. 57.

But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst ; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water, springing up into everlasting life. John iv. 14.

III.

SPIRITUAL LIFE.

FATHER, the hour is come ; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee : John xvii. 1.

As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. John xvii. 2.

And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. John xvii. 3.

I am the way, the truth, and the life : no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. John xiv. 6.

I am the resurrection, and the life : he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live : John xi. 25.

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? John xi. 26.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation ; but is passed from death unto life. John v. 24.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. John vi. 47.

I am the bread of life : he that cometh to me shall never hunger ; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. John vi. 35.

I am that bread of life. John vi. 48.

Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. John vi. 49.

This is the bread which cometh down John vi. 50.
from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

I am the living bread which came down John vi. 51.
from heaven : if any man eat of this bread,
he shall live for ever : and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye John vi. 53.
eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my John vi. 54.
blood, hath eternal life ; and I will raise him
up at the last day.

As the living Father hath sent me, and I John vi. 57.
live by the Father ; so he that eateth me,
even he shall live by me.

But whosoever drinketh of the water that John iv. 14.
I shall give him shall never thirst ; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

He that believeth on me, as the Scripture John vii. 38.
hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man John viii. 51.
keep my saying, he shall never see death.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is John v. 25.
coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God : and they that hear shall live.

For as the Father raiseth up the dead, John v. 21.
and quickeneth them ; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

For as the Father hath life in himself ; so John v. 26.
hath he given to the Son to have life in himself.

For he is not a God of the dead, but of Luke xx. 38.
the living : for all live unto him.

And this is the will of him that sent me, John vi. 40.
that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life :
and I will raise him up at the last day.

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the John iii. 14.
wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up :

That whosoever believeth in him should John iii. 15.
not perish, but have eternal life.

For God so loved the world, that he gave John iii. 16.
his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

The life is more than meat, and the body Luke xii. 23.
is more than raiment.

Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought Math. vi. 25.
for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink ; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment ?

It is the Spirit that quickeneth ; the flesh John vi. 63.
profiteth nothing : the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and John iv. 36.
gathereth fruit unto life eternal : that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

And whosoever will lose his life for my Math. xvi. 25.
sake shall find it.

But whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it. Mark viii. 35.

And whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it. Luke xvii. 33.

And he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. John xii. 25.

Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Math. xix. 18

Honour thy father and thy mother : and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self. Math. xix. 19

In my Father's house are many mansions : if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. John xiv. 2.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself ; that where I am, there ye may be also. John xiv. 3.

And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. John xiv. 4.

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. John v. 40.

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment : but the righteous into life eternal. Math. xxv. 46.

IV.

SPIRITUAL DEATH.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death. John viii. 51.

And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul : but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Math. x. 28.

And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. Luke xii. 4.

But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear : Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell ; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Luke xii. 5.

Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things? Luke xiii. 2.

I tell you, Nay : but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Luke xiii. 3.

Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? Luke xiii. 4.

I tell you, Nay : but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Luke xiii. 5.

I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins : for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. John viii. 24.

For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Math xvi. 26.

For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Mark viii. 36.

Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Mark viii. 37.

For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away? Luke ix. 25.

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it. Math. xvi. 25.

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it. Mark viii. 35.

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it. Luke ix. 24.

Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it. Luke xvii. 33.

He that loveth his life shall lose it. John xii. 25

Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead. Math. viii. 22.

Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. Math. xxv. 41.

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal. Math. xxv. 46.

V.

RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD.

BUT as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

Math. xxii. 31.

I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

Math. xxii. 32.

And as touching the dead, that they rise; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

Mark xii. 26.

He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

Mark xii. 27.

Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

Luke xx. 37.

For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him.

Luke xx. 38.

Ye do err, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.

Math. xxii. 29.

For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

Math. xxii. 30.

Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

Mark xii. 24.

For when they shall rise from the dead, Mark xii. 25.
they neither marry, nor are given in marriage ; but are as the angels which are in heaven.

The children of this world marry, and are Luke xx. 34.
given in marriage :

But they which shall be accounted worthy Luke xx. 35.
to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage :

Neither can they die any more : for they Luke xx. 36.
are equal unto the angels ; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

Marvel not at this : for the hour is coming, John v. 28.
in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

And shall come forth ; they that have John v. 29.
done good, unto the resurrection of life ; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

And this is the Father's will which hath John vi. 39.
sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

And this is the will of him that sent me, John vi. 40.
that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life : and I will raise him up at the last day.

VI.

THE JUDGMENT.

WHEN the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: Math. xxv. 31.

And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: Math. xxv. 32.

And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Math. xxv. 33.

Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: Math. xxv. 34.

For I was a hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: Math. xxv. 35.

Naked, and ye clothed me. I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Math. xxv. 36.

Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee a hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? Math. xxv. 37.

When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? Math. xxv. 38.

Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? Math. xxv. 39.

And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Math. xxv. 40.

Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels : Math. xxv. 41.

For I was a hungered, and ye gave me no meat : I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink : Math. xxv. 42.

I was a stranger, and ye took me not in : naked, and ye clothed me not : sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. Math. xxv. 43.

Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee a hungered, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee ? Math. xxv. 44.

Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily, I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. Math. xxv. 45.

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment : but the righteous into life eternal. Math. xxv. 46.

So the last shall be first, and the first last : for many be called, but few chosen. Math. xx. 16.

But many that are first shall be last ; and the last shall be first. Math. xix. 30.

But many that are first shall be last ; and the last first. Mark x. 31.

For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels ; and Math. xvi. 27.

then he shall reward every man according to his works.

At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. John xiv. 20.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? Math. vii. 22.

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Math. vii. 23.

As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. Math. xiii. 40.

The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; Math. xiii. 41.

And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Math. xiii. 42.

Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. Math. xiii. 43.

So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, Math. xiii. 49.

And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Math. xiii. 50.

Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his Math. xix. 28.

glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. Luke xxii. 30.

For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son :

And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. John v. 27.

VII.

PROMISES.

WHOSOEVER therefore shall break Math. v. 19.
 one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven : but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

He that receiveth a prophet in the name Math. x. 41.
 of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward ; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.

And whosoever shall give to drink unto Math. x. 42.
 one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

And every one that hath forsaken houses, Math. xix. 29.
 or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

Verily I say unto you, There is no man Mark x. 29.
 that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's,

But he shall receive a hundredfold now Mark x. 30.
 in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions ; and in the world to come eternal life.

Verily I say unto you, There is no man Luke xviii. 29.
that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

Who shall not receive manifold more in Luke xviii. 30.
this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

I am the bread of life : he that cometh to John vi. 35.
me shall never hunger ; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my John vi. 54.
blood, hath eternal life ; and I will raise him
up at the last day.

As the living Father hath sent me, and I John vi. 57.
live by the Father : so he that eateth me,
even he shall live by me.

This is that bread which came down from John vi. 58
heaven : not as your fathers did eat manna,
and are dead : he that eateth of this bread
shall live for ever.

I am the resurrection, and the life : he John xi. 25.
that believeth in me, though he were dead,
yet shall he live :

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me John xi. 26.
shall never die. Believest thou this ?

But whosoever drinketh of the water that John iv. 14.
I shall give him shall never thirst ; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

And this is the will of him that sent me, John vi. 40.
that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life :
and I will raise him up at the last day.

Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. Math. xix. 28.

That ye may eat and sit at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. Luke xxii. 30.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death. John viii. 51.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. John xiv. 2.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. John xiv. 3.

I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. John xiv. 18.

For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. Math. xviii. 20.

VIII.

PUNISHMENT AND HELL.

ENTER ye in at the strait gate : for Math. vii. 13.
 wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat.

Every tree that bringeth not forth good Math. vii. 19.
 fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

And fear not them which kill the body, Math. x. 28.
 but are not able to kill the soul : but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

But I will forewarn you whom ye shall Luke xii. 5.
 fear : Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell ; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

As therefore the tares are gathered and Math. xiii. 40.
 burned in the fire ; so shall it be in the end of this world.

The Son of man shall send forth his angels, Math. xiii. 41. and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity ;

And shall cast them into a furnace of fire : Math. xiii. 42.
 there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

So shall it be at the end of the world : the Math. xiii. 49.
 angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked
 from among the just,

And shall cast them into the furnace of fire : Math. xiii. 50
 there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness : there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Math. xxv. 30.

And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites : there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Math. xxiv. 51.

Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. Math. xxv. 41.

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment : but the righteous into life eternal. Math. xxv. 46.

And shall come forth ; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life ; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. John v. 29.

And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee : for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. Math. v. 30.

And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee : for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. Math. v. 29.

Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee : it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. Math. xviii. 8.

And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee : it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire. Math. xviii. 9.

And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off : it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched : Mark ix. 43.

Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. Mark ix. 44.

And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off : it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched : Mark ix. 45.

Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. Mark ix. 46.

And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out : it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire : Mark ix. 47.

Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. Mark ix. 48.

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved ; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mark xvi. 16.

I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins : for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. John viii. 24.

Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Luke xiii. 3.

Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Luke xiii. 5.

For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. Math. v. 20.

But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment : and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council : but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. Math. v. 22.

But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation. Mark iii. 29.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer : therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation. Math. xxiii. 14.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte ; and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves. Math. xxiii. 15.

Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell ? Math. xxiii. 33.

There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. Luke xiii. 28.

And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell : for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. Math. xi. 23.

And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell. Luke x. 15.

Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Math. xxii. 13.

And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. Math. xviii. 34.

So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses. Math. xviii. 35.

The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. Luke xii. 46.

And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. Luke xvi. 23.

And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. Luke xvi. 24.

But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. Luke xvi. 25.

And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they Luke xvi. 26.

which would pass from hence to you cannot ; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, Luke xvi. 27.
that thou wouldest send him to my father's house :

For I have five brethren ; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Luke xvi. 28.

RIGHTEOUSNESS.

I.

THE CALLS.

IF any man serve me, let him follow me ; John xii. 26.
and where I am, there shall also my servant be : if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that Math. xix. 21.
thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven : and come and follow me.

One thing thou lackest : go thy way, sell Mark x. 21.
whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven ; and come, take up the cross and follow me.

Yet lackest thou one thing : sell all that Luke xviii. 22.
thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven : and come, follow me.

Follow me, and I will make you fishers of Math. iv. 19.
men.

Come ye after me, and I will make you to Mark i. 17.
become fishers of men.

Follow me. Mark ii. 14.

Follow me. Luke v. 27.

What seek ye ? John i. 38.

Come and see. John i. 39

Follow me.

John i. 43.

Follow me ; and let the dead bury their dead.

Math. viii. 22.

Follow me.

Luke ix. 59.

Let the dead bury their dead : but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

Luke ix. 60.

Follow me.

Math. ix. 9.

Come.

Math. xiv. 29.

Follow me.

John xxi. 19.

If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me.

John xxi. 22.

Unto you that hear shall more be given.

Mark iv. 24.

II.

FAITH.

HAVE faith in God.

Mark xi. 22.

Let not your heart be troubled : ye believe in God, believe also in me.

John xiv. 1.

This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

John vi. 29.

He that believeth on him is not condemned : but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

John iii. 18.

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved ; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

Mark xvi. 16.

He that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

John vii. 38.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also ; and greater works than these shall he do ; because I go unto my Father.

John xiv. 12.

And these signs shall follow them that believe ; In my name shall they cast out devils ; they shall speak with new tongues ;

Mark xvi. 17.

They shall take up serpents ; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them ; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

Mark xvi. 18.

Be of good cheer ; it is I ; be not afraid.

Math. xiv. 27.

Be of good cheer : it is I ; be not afraid.

Mark vi. 50.

It is I ; be not afraid.

John vi. 20.

Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith ?

Math. viii. 26.

Why are ye so fearful ? how is it that ye have no faith ?

Mark iv. 40.

Where is your faith ?

Luke viii. 25.

Be not afraid, only believe.

Mark v. 36.

Fear not : believe only, and she shall be made whole.

Luke viii. 50.

If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

Mark ix. 23.

And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

Math. xxi. 22.

Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

Mark xi. 24.

Verily, I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea ; it shall be done.

Math. xxi. 21.

For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea ; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass ; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

Mark xi. 23.

For verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place ; and it shall remove : and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

Math. xvii. 20.

If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, Luke xvii. 6.
ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea ; and it should obey you.

Believe ye that I am able to do this? Math. ix. 28.

Do ye now believe? John xvi. 31.

According to your faith be it unto you. Math. ix. 29.

Verily I say unto you, I have not found so Math. viii. 10.
great faith, no, not in Israel.

I say unto you, I have not found so great Luke vii. 9.
faith, no, not in Israel.

Go thy way ; and as thou hast believed, Math. viii. 13.
so be it done unto thee.

Daughter, be of good comfort ; thy faith Math. ix. 22.
hath made thee whole.

O woman, great is thy faith : be it unto Math. xv. 28.
thee even as thou wilt.

Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole ; Mark v. 34.
go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

For this saying go thy way ; the devil is Mark vii. 29.
gone out of thy daughter.

Go thy way ; thy faith hath made thee Mark x. 52.
whole.

Thy faith hath saved thee ; go in peace. Luke vii. 50.

Daughter, be of good comfort : thy faith Luke viii. 48.
hath made thee whole ; go in peace.

Arise, go thy way : thy faith hath made Luke xvii. 19.
thee whole.

Receive thy sight : thy faith hath saved Luke xviii. 42.
thee.

And I am glad for your sakes that I was John xi. 15.
not there, to the intent ye may believe ;
nevertheless let us go unto him.

Said I not unto thee, that, if thou would- John xi. 40.
est believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

Dost thou believe on the Son of God? John ix. 35.

And I knew that thou hearest me always : John xi. 42.
but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

Reach hither thy finger, and behold my John xx. 27.
hands ; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side ; and be not faithless, but believing.

Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou John xx. 29.
hast believed : blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, Luke xviii. 8.
shall he find faith on the earth?

III.

SALVATION THROUGH FAITH.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He John vi. 47.
that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

I am the resurrection, and the life : he John xi. 25.
that believeth in me, though he were dead,
yet shall he live :

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me John xi. 26.
shall never die. Believest thou this?

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the John iii. 14.
wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up :

That whosoever believeth in him should John iii. 15.
not perish, but have eternal life.

For God so loved the world, that he gave John iii. 16.
his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

He that believeth on him is not condemned : but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. John iii. 18.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that John v. 24.
heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation ; but is passed from death unto life.

And this is the will of him that sent me, John vi. 40.
that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life :
and I will raise him up at the last day.

He that believeth and is baptized shall be Mark xvi. 16.
saved.

IV.

REPENTANCE.

REPENT : for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Math. iv. 17.

The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand : repent ye, and believe the gospel. Mark i. 15.

What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? Luke xv. 4.

And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. Luke xv. 5.

And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me ; for I have found my sheep which was lost. Luke xv. 6.

I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance. Luke xv. 7.

Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it? Luke xv. 8.

And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me ; for I have found the piece which I had lost. Luke xv. 9.

Likewise, I say unto you, There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth. Luke xv. 10.

But what think ye? A certain man had two sons ; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard. Math. xxi. 28.

He answered and said, I will not ; but afterward he repented, and went. Math. xxi. 29.

And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir ; and went not. Math. xxi. 30.

Whether of them twain did the will of his father? Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. Math. xxi. 31.

For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not ; but the publicans and the harlots believed him : and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him. Math. xxi. 32.

A certain man had two sons : Luke xv. 11.

And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. Luke xv. 12.

And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. Luke xv. 13.

And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land ; and he began to be in want. Luke xv. 14.

And he went and joined himself to a Luke xv. 15.

citizen of that country ; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat : and no man gave unto him. Luke xv. 16.

And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger ! Luke xv. 17.

I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, Luke xv. 18.

And am no more worthy to be called thy son : make me as one of thy hired servants. Luke xv. 19.

And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. Luke xv. 20.

And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. Luke xv. 21.

But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him ; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet : Luke xv. 22.

And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it ; and let us eat, and be merry : Luke xv. 23.

For this my son was dead, and is alive again ; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. Luke xv. 24

Now his elder son was in the field : and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing. Luke xv. 25.

And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. Luke xv. 26.

And he said unto him, Thy brother is come ; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. Luke xv. 27.

And he was angry, and would not go in : therefore came his father out, and entreated him. Luke xv. 28.

And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment ; and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends : Luke xv. 29.

But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. Luke xv. 30.

And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. Luke xv. 31.

It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad : for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again ; and was lost, and is found. Luke xv. 32.

Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things? Luke xiii. 2.

I tell you, Nay : but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Luke xiii. 3.

Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? Luke xiii. 4.

I tell you, Nay : but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Luke xiii. 5.

V.

BAPTISM.

VERILY, verily, I say unto thee, Except John iii. 5.
a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, Math. xxviii. 19.
baptizing them in the name of the Father,
and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

He that believeth and is baptized shall be Mark xvi. 16.
saved ; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

The baptism of John, whence was it? from Math. xxi. 25.
heaven, or of men?

The baptism of John, was it from heaven, Mark xi. 30.
or of men? answer me.

The baptism of John, was it from heaven, Luke xx. 4.
or of men?

For John truly baptized with water ; but Acts i. 5.
ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

VI.

REGENERATION.

VERILY, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. John iii. 3.

Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. John iii. 5.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh ; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. John iii. 6.

Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. John iii. 7.

The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth : so is every one that is born of the Spirit. John iii. 8.

Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? John iii. 13.

Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. John xv. 3.

No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment ; for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse. Math. ix. 16.

Neither do men put new wine into old bottles : else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish : but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved. Math. ix. 17.

No man also seweth a piece of new cloth Mark ii. 21. on an old garment ; else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

And no man putteth new wine into old Mark ii. 22. bottles ; else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred : but new wine must be put into new bottles.

No man putteth a piece of a new garment Luke v. 36. upon an old ; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

And no man putteth new wine into old Luke v. 37. bottles ; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

But new wine must be put into new bot- Luke v. 38. tles ; and both are preserved.

No man also having drunk old wine Luke v. 39. straightway desireth new ; for he saith, The old is better.

VII.

WORKS.

WHO is my mother, or my brethren? Mark iii. 33.

Behold my mother, and my brethren ! Mark iii. 34.

For whosoever shall do the will of God, Mark iii. 35.
the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do Luke vi. 46.
not the things which I say?

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Math. vii. 21.
Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven ;
but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

If any man will do his will, he shall know John vii. 17.
of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

Let your light so shine before men, that Math. v. 16.
they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear John xv. 8.
much fruit ; so shall ye be my disciples.

If I do not the works of my Father, be- John x. 37.
lieve me not.

But if I do, though ye believe not me, be John x. 38.
lieve the works ; that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Math. vii. 22.
Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name?

and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Math. vii. 23.

Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: Math. vii. 24.

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. Math. vii. 25

And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: Math. vii. 26.

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it. Math. vii. 27.

Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like: Luke vi. 47.

He is like a man which built a house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it; for it was founded upon a rock. Luke vi. 48.

But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built a house upon the earth; against which the stream Luke vi. 49.

did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell ;
and the ruin of that house was great.

A certain man went down from Jerusalem Luke x. 30.
to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

And by chance there came down a certain Luke x. 31.
priest that way ; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

And likewise a Levite, when he was at the Luke x. 32.
place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, Luke x. 33 came where he was ; and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

And went to him, and bound up his Luke x. 34.
wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

And on the morrow when he departed, he Luke x. 35.
took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him :
and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

Which now of these three, thinkest thou, Luke x. 36.
was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

Go, and do thou likewise. Luke x. 37.

A certain man had a fig tree planted in Luke xiii. 6.
his vineyard ; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

Then said he unto the dresser of his Luke xiii. 7.
vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none : cut it down ; why cumbereth it the ground ?

And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it : Luke xiii. 8.

And if it bear fruit, well ; and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down. Luke xiii. 9.

Behold, a sower went forth to sow ; Math. xiii. 3.

And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up : Math. xiii. 4.

But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. Math. xiii. 8.

But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it ; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Math. xiii. 23

Hearken ; Behold, there went out a sower to sow : Mark iv. 3.

And it came to pass as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up. Mark iv. 4.

And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred. Mark iv. 8.

And these are they which are sown on good ground ; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred. Mark iv. 20.

Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit. Math. xii. 33.

Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Math. vii. 16.

For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. Luke vi. 44.

Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. Math. vii. 17.

A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Math. vii. 18.

For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Luke vi. 43.

Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Math. vii. 19.

Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Math. vii. 20.

Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. John xv. 16.

Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. Math. xxi. 19.

No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. Mark xi. 14.

VIII.

THE GREAT COMMANDMENTS.

THOU shalt love the Lord thy God with Math. xxii. 37.
all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

This is the first and great commandment. Math. xxii. 38.

And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt Math. xxii. 39.
love thy neighbour as thyself.

On these two commandments hang all the Math. xxii. 40.
law and the prophets.

The first of all the commandments is, Mark xii. 29.
Hear, O Israel ; The Lord our God is one
Lord :

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God Mark xii. 30.
with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength :
this is the first commandment.

And the second is like, namely this, Thou Mark xii. 31.
shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would Math. vii. 12.
that men should do to you, do ye even so to them : for this is the law and the prophets.

And as ye would that men should do to Luke vi. 31.
you, do ye also to them likewise.

IX.

LOVE.

A NEW commandment I give unto you, John xiii. 34.
That ye love one another ; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

This is my commandment, That ye love John xv. 12.
one another, as I have loved you.

These things I command you, that ye love John xv. 17.
one another.

By this shall all men know that ye are my John xiii. 35.
disciples, if ye have love one to another.

Greater love hath no man than this, that a John xv. 13.
man lay down his life for his friends.

Ye have heard that it hath been said, Math. v. 43.
Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, Math. v. 44.
bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you ;

That ye may be the children of your Math. v. 45.
Father which is in heaven : for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

For if ye love them which love you, what Math. v. 46.
reward have ye ? do not even the publicans the same ?

And if ye salute your brethren only, what Math. v. 47.

do ye more than others ? do not even the publicans so ?

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them : for this is the law and the prophets. Math. vii. 12.

But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, Luke vi. 27.

Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you. Luke vi. 28.

For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye ? for sinners also love those that love them. Luke vi. 32.

And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye ? for sinners also do even the same. Luke vi. 33.

And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye ? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. Luke vi. 34.

But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again ; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest : for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil. Luke vi. 35.

If a man love me, he will keep my words : and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. John xiv. 23.

He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings : and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me. John xiv. 24.

X.

CHARITY.

IT is more blessed to give than to receive. Acts xx. 35.

Give, and it shall be given unto you ; Luke vi. 38.
good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal, it shall be measured to you again.

Give to him that asketh thee, and from Math. v. 42.
him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

Give to every man that asketh of thee ; Luke vi. 30.
and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

Sell that ye have, and give alms ; provide Luke xii. 33.
yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that Math. xix. 21.
thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven : and come and follow me.

One thing thou lackest : go thy way, sell Mark x. 21.
whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven : and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

Yet lackest thou one thing : sell all that Luke xviii. 22 thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven : and come, follow me.

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Luke xii. 34.

Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them : otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. Math. vi. 1.

Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. Math. vi. 2.

But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth : Math. vi. 3.

That thine alms may be in secret : and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly. Math. vi. 4.

When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours ; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee. Luke xiv. 12.

But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind : Luke xiv. 13.

And thou shalt be blessed ; for they cannot recompense thee : for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just. Luke xiv. 14.

Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury : Mark xii. 43.

For all they did cast in of their abundance ; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living. Mark xii. 44.

Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all : Luke xxi. 3.

For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God : but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had. Luke xxi. 4.

But rather give alms of such things as ye have ; and, behold, all things are clean unto you. Luke xi. 41.

And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness ; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. Luke xvi. 9.

XI.

FORGIVENESS AND RECONCILI-ATION.

FATHER, forgive them ; for they know not what they do. Luke xxiii. 34.

Forgive, and ye shall be forgiven. Luke vi. 37.

Take heed to yourselves : if thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him ; and if he repent, forgive him. Luke xvii. 3.

And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent ; thou shalt forgive him. Luke xvii. 4.

I say not unto thee, Until seven times : but, Until seventy times seven. Math. xviii. 22.

And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any ; that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. Mark xi. 25.

But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses. Mark xi. 26.

Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee ; Math. v. 23.

Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way ; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Math. v. 24.

For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you : Math. vi. 14.

But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, Math. vi. 15.
neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Agree with thine adversary quickly, while Math. v. 25.
thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no Math. v. 26.
means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

When thou goest with thine adversary to Luke xii. 58.
the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, Luke xii. 59.
till thou hast paid the very last mite.

Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened Math. xviii. 23.
unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

And when he had begun to reckon, one Math. xviii. 24.
was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents.

But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his Math. xviii. 25.
lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

The servant therefore fell down, and wor- Math. xviii. 26.
shipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

Then the lord of that servant was moved Math. xviii. 27.

with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow servants, which owed him a hundred pence : and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

And his fellow servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

And he would not : but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me :

Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow servant, even as I had pity on thee ?

And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee.

There was a certain creditor which had two debtors : the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

And when they had nothing to pay, he Luke vii. 42.
 frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

Thou hast rightly judged. Luke vii. 43.

Seest thou this woman? I entered into Luke vii. 44.
 thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman, Luke vii. 45.
 since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

My head with oil thou didst not anoint: Luke vii. 46.
 but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, Luke vii. 47.
 which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

XII.

MERCY AND FORBEARANCE.

BLESSED are the merciful: for they Math. v. 7.
shall obtain mercy.

Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father Luke vi. 36.
also is merciful.

But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I Math. ix. 13.
will have mercy, and not sacrifice.

Moreover if thy brother shall trespass Math. xviii. 15.
against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

But if he will not hear thee, then take with Math. xviii. 16.
thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell Math. xviii. 17.
it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publican.

Then the lord of that servant was moved Math. xviii. 27.
with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

Shouldest not thou also have had compas- Math. xviii. 33.
sion on thy fellow servant, even as I had pity on thee?

XIII.

SELF-RENUNCIATION.

IF any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. Math. xvi. 24.

Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. Mark viii. 34.

If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. Luke ix. 23.

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. Math. xvi. 25.

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it. Mark viii. 35.

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it. Luke ix. 24.

For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Math. xvi. 26.

For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Mark viii. 36.

Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Mark viii. 37.

For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away? Luke ix. 25.

He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me : and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. Math. x. 37.

And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me. Math. x. 38.

If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. Luke xiv. 26.

And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. Luke xiv. 27.

So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Luke xiv. 33.

He that findeth his life shall lose it : and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it. Math. x. 39.

Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it ; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it. Luke xvii. 33.

He that loveth his life shall lose it ; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. John xii. 25.

For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it ? Luke xiv. 28.

Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, Luke xiv. 29.

Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. Luke xiv. 30.

Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace. Luke xiv. 32.

XIV.

PURITY AND SINGLENESS OF HEART.

BLESSED are the pure in heart : for they shall see God. Math. v. 8.

A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things : and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things. Math. xii. 35.

A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good ; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil : for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh. Luke vi. 45.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. Mark x. 15.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter therein. Luke xviii. 17.

Hear, and understand : Math. xv. 10.

Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man ; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man. Math. xv. 11.

Are ye also yet without understanding? Math. xv. 16.

Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? Math. xv. 17.

But those things which proceed out of the Math. xv. 18.

mouth come forth from the heart ; and they defile the man.

For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, Math. xv. 19.
murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies :

These are the things which defile a man : Math. xv. 20.
but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

Hearken unto me every one of you, and Mark vii. 14.
understand :

There is nothing from without a man, that Mark vii. 15.
entering into him can defile him : but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

Are ye so without understanding also? Do Mark vii. 18.
ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him ;

Because it entereth not into his heart, but Mark vii. 19.
into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

That which cometh out of the man, that Mark vii. 20.
defileth the man.

For from within, out of the heart of men, Mark vii. 21.
proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, Mark vii. 22
lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness :

All these evil things come from within, and Mark vii. 23.
defile the man.

Ye have heard that it was said by them of Math. v. 27.
old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery :

But I say unto you, That whosoever look- Math. v. 28.
eth on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? Math. ix. 4.

The light of the body is the eye : if there- Math. vi. 22.
fore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body Math. vi. 23.
shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness?

No man can serve two masters : for either Math. vi. 24.
he will hate the one, and love the other ; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

The light of the body is the eye : there- Luke xi. 34.
fore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light ; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

Take heed therefore, that the light which Luke xi. 35.
is in thee be not darkness.

If thy whole body therefore be full of light, Luke xi. 36.
having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

O generation of vipers, how can ye, be- Math. xii. 34.
ing evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt Math. iv. 7.
the Lord thy God.

It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord Luke iv. 12.
thy God.

No servant can serve two masters : for Luke xvi. 13.
either he will hate the one, and love the other ; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

But rather give alms of such things as ye Luke xi. 41.
have ; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

XV.

PURITY OF SPEECH.

BUT I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. Math. xii. 36.

For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned. Math. xii. 37.

Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths : Math. v. 33

But I say unto you, Swear not at all ; neither by heaven ; for it is God's throne : Math. v. 34.

Nor by the earth ; for it is his footstool : neither by Jerusalem ; for it is the city of the great King. Math. v. 35.

Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black. Math. v. 36.

But let your communication be, Yea, yea ; Nay, nay : for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil. Math. v. 37.

Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon. Math xxiii. 20

And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein. Math. xxiii. 21.

And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon. Math. xxiii. 22.

XVI.

SUBJECTION OF THE FLESH.

WHEREFORE if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee : it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. Math. xviii. 8.

And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee : for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. Math. v. 29.

And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee : it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire. Math. xviii. 9.

And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee : for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. Math. v. 30.

And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off : it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched : Mark ix. 43.

Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. Mark ix. 44.

And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off : it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than Mark ix. 45.

having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched :

Where their worm dieth not, and the fire Mark ix. 46.
is not quenched.

And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out : Mark ix. 47.
it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire :

Where their worm dieth not, and the fire Mark ix. 48.
is not quenched.

For every one shall be salted with fire, Mark ix. 49.
and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by Math. xvii. 21 prayer and fasting.

This kind can come forth by nothing, but Mark ix. 29.
by prayer and fasting.

Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the Math. vi. 16.
hypocrites, of a sad countenance : for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine Math. vi. 17.
head, and wash thy face ;

That thou appear not unto men to fast, Math. vi. 18.
but unto thy Father which is in secret : and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

XVII.

OBEDIENCE AND SUBMISSION.

IF ye love me, keep my commandments. John xiv. 15.

He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me : and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. John xiv. 21.

Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. John xv. 14.

He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory : but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. John vii. 18.

And I seek not mine own glory : there is one that seeketh and judgeth. John viii. 50.

If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. John vii. 17.

O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me : nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. Math. xxvi. 39.

Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee ; take away this cup from me : nevertheless, not what I will, but what thou wilt. Mark xiv. 36.

O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. Math. xxvi. 42.

Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup Luke xxii. 42.

from me : nevertheless, not my will, but thine, be done.

Put up thy sword into the sheath : the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? John xviii. 11.

And he that sent me is with me : the Father hath not left me alone ; for I do always those things that please him. John viii. 29.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost : Math.xxviii. 19.

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you : and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen. Math.xxviii. 20.

XVIII.

FAITHFULNESS AND WATCH-FULNESS.

HE that is faithful in that which is Luke xvi. 10.
least is faithful also in much : and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

If therefore ye have not been faithful in Luke xvi. 11.
the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches ?

And if ye have not been faithful in that Luke xvi. 12.
which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own ?

Who then is a faithful and wise servant, Math. xxiv. 45.
whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season ?

Blessed is that servant, whom his lord Math. xxiv. 46.
when he cometh shall find so doing.

Verily I say unto you, That he shall make Math. xxiv. 47.
him ruler over all his goods.

Who then is that faithful and wise steward, Luke xii. 42.
whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season ?

Blessed is that servant whom his lord when Luke xii. 43.
he cometh shall find so doing.

Of a truth I say unto you, that he will Luke xii. 44.
make him ruler over all that he hath.

But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up. Math. xxiv. 43.

Therefore be ye also ready : for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. Math. xxiv. 44.

Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning ; Luke xii. 35.

And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding ; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. Luke xii. 36.

Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching : verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. Luke xii. 37.

And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. Luke xii. 38.

And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through. Luke xii. 39.

Be ye therefore ready also : for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not. Luke xii. 40.

• And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. Luke xii. 47.

But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required; and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more. Luke xii. 48.

Watch ye therefore, and pray always. Luke xxi. 36.

Watch therefore; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Math. xxiv. 42.

Watch therefore; for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh. Math. xxv. 13.

Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. Math. xxvi. 41.

Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. Mark xiii. 33.

For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Mark xiii. 34.

Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning: Mark xiii. 35.

Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. Mark xiii. 36.

And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch. Mark xiii. 37.

Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak. Mark xiv. 38.

Pray that ye enter not into temptation. Luke xxii. 40.

Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. Luke xxii. 46.

XIX.

STEADFASTNESS AND PERSE-VERANCE.

No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God. Luke ix. 62.

If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed ; John viii. 31.

And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. John viii. 32.

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake : but he that endureth to the end shall be saved. Math. x. 22.

But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. Math. xxiv. 13.

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake : but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. Mark xiii. 13.

Behold, a sower went forth to sow ; Math. xiii. 3.

And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up : Math. xiii. 4.

Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth : and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth : Math. xiii. 5.

And when the sun was up, they were scorched ; and because they had no root, they withered away. Math. xiii. 6.

And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them: Math. xiii. 7.

But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. Math. xiii. 8.

Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. Math. xiii. 9.

Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. Math. xiii. 18.

When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. Math. xiii. 19.

But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; Math. xiii. 20.

Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. Math. xiii. 21.

He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. Math. xiii. 22.

But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Math. xiii. 23.

Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow: Mark iv. 3.

And it came to pass, as he sowed, some Mark iv. 4.

fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth: Mark iv. 5.

But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. Mark iv. 6.

And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. Mark iv. 7.

And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up, and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred. Mark iv. 8.

He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. Mark iv. 9.

Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables? Mark iv. 13.

The sower soweth the word. Mark iv. 14.

And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. Mark iv. 15.

And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; Mark iv. 16.

And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. Mark iv. 17.

And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, Mark iv. 18.

And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. Mark iv. 19.

And these are they which are sown on good ground ; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some an hundred. Mark iv. 20.

Ye are the salt of the earth : but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted ? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Math. v. 13.

Salt is good : but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it ? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another. Mark ix. 50.

Salt is good : but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned ? Luke xiv. 34.

It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill ; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. Luke xiv. 35.

XX.

PATIENCE.

IN your patience possess ye your souls. Luke xxi. 19.
It is not for you to know the times or Acts i. 7.
the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

XXI.

COURAGE.

BE not afraid, only believe. Mark v. 36.
 Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid. Math. xiv. 27.

Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. Mark vi. 50.

It is I; be not afraid. John vi. 20.

Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Math. viii. 26.

Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith? Mark iv. 40.

Arise, and be not afraid. Math. xvii. 7.

Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole. Luke viii. 50.

XXII.

NON-RESISTANCE.

YE have heard that it hath been said, An Math. v. 38.
eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth :

But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil : Math. v. 39.
but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

And if any man will sue thee at the law, Math. v. 40.
and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.

And whosoever shall compel thee to go a Math. v. 41.
mile, go with him twain.

Ye have heard that it hath been said, Math. v. 43.
Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, Math. v. 44.
bless them that curse you, do good to them
that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you ;

But I say unto you which hear, Love your Luke vi. 27.
enemies, do good to them which hate you,

Bless them that curse you, and pray for Luke vi. 28.
them which despitefully use you.

And unto him that smiteth thee on the Luke vi. 29.
one cheek offer also the other ; and him that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also.

Give to every man that asketh of thee ; Luke vi. 30.
and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven : for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. Math. v. 45.

Put up again thy sword into his place : for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. Math. xxvi. 52.

XXIII.

HUMILITY AND SIMPLICITY.

BLESSED are the poor in spirit : for Math. v. 3.
theirs is the kingdom of Heaven.

Blessed are the meek : for they shall in- Math. v. 5.
herit the earth.

What was it that ye disputed among your- Mark ix. 33.
selves by the way?

If any man desire to be first, the same shall Mark ix. 35.
be last of all, and servant of all.

But be ye not called Rabbi : for one is Math. xxiii. 8.
your Master, even Christ ; and all ye are brethren.

But he that is greatest among you shall be Math. xxiii. 11.
your servant.

I tell you, this man went down to his house Luke xviii. 14.
justified rather than the other : for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased ; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be Math. xxiii. 12.
abased ; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

What I do thou knowest not now ; but John xiii. 7.
thou shalt know hereafter.

If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with John xiii. 8.
me.

He that is washed needeth not save to John xiii. 10.
wash his feet, but is clean every whit : and ye are clean, but not all.

Know ye what I have done to you? John xiii. 12.

Ye call me Master and Lord : and ye say John xiii. 13.
well ; for so I am.

If I then, your Lord and Master, have John xiii. 14. washed your feet ; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

For I have given you an example, that ye John xiii. 15.
should do as I have done to you.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant John xiii. 16.
is not greater than his lord ; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye John xiii. 17.
do them.

Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles Math. xx. 25.
exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

But it shall not be so among you : but Math. xx. 26.
whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister ;

And whosoever will be chief among you, Math. xx. 27.
let him be your servant :

Ye know that they which are accounted to Mark x. 42.
rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them ; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

But so shall it not be among you : but Mark x. 43.
whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister :

And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, Mark x. 44.
shall be servant of all.

The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship Luke xxii. 25.
over them ; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

But ye shall not be so : but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger ; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. Luke xxii. 26.

For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth. Luke xxii. 27.

When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room ; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him : Luke xiv. 8.

But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room, that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher : then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. Luke xiv. 10.

And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place ; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room. Luke xiv. 9.

For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased ; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. Luke xiv. 11.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. Mark x. 15.

Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Math. xviii. 3.

Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Math. xviii. 4.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein. Luke xviii. 17.

Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me ; and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me : for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great. Luke ix. 48.

I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Math. xi. 25.

Even so, Father ; for so it seemed good in thy sight. Math. xi. 26.

XXIV.

TRUST IN GOD'S PROVIDENCE.

THEREFORE I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink ; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? Math. vi. 25.

Behold the fowls of the air : for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns ; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? Math. vi. 26.

Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? Math. vi. 27.

And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow ; they toil not, neither do they spin : Math. vi. 28.

And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Math. vi. 29.

Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Math. vi. 30.

Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? Math. vi. 31.

(For after all these things do the Gentiles seek :) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. Math. vi. 32.

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness ; and all these things shall be added unto you. Math. vi. 33.

Take therefore no thought for the morrow : for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. Math. vi. 34.

Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? Luke xii. 6.

But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore : ye are of more value than many sparrows. Luke xii. 7.

Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat ; neither for the body, what ye shall put on. Luke xii. 22.

Consider the ravens : for they neither sow nor reap ; which neither have storehouse nor barn ; and God feedeth them : how much more are ye better than the fowls? Luke xii. 24.

And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit? Luke xii. 25.

If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest? Luke xii. 26.

Consider the lilies how they grow : they toil not, they spin not ; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Luke xii. 27.

If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven ; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith? Luke xii. 28.

And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. Luke xii. 29.

For all these things do the nations of the world seek after : and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. Luke xii. 30.

But rather seek ye the kingdom of God ; and all these things shall be added unto you. Luke xii. 31.

Fear not, little flock ; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Luke xii. 32.

XXV.

GRATITUDE.

GO home to thy friends, and tell them Mark v. 19.
how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

Return to thine own house, and shew how Luke viii. 39.
great things God hath done unto thee.

See thou tell no man ; but go thy way, Math. viii. 4.
shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

See thou say nothing to any man : but go Mark i. 44.
thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

Tell no man : but go, and shew thyself to Luke v. 14.
the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

Were there not ten cleansed? but where Luke xvii. 17.
are the nine?

There are not found that returned to give Luke xvii. 18.
glory to God, save this stranger.

Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. Luke vii. 40.

There was a certain creditor which had Luke vii. 41.
two debtors : the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

And when they had nothing to pay, he Luke vii. 42.
frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

Thou hast rightly judged.

Luke vii. 43.

Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet : but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

Luke vii. 44.

Thou gavest me no kiss : but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

Luke vii. 45.

My head with oil thou didst not anoint :
but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

Luke vii. 46.

Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven ; for she loved much : but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

Luke vii. 47.

Thy sins are forgiven.

Luke vii. 48.

Thy faith hath saved thee ; go in peace.

Luke vii. 50.

XXVI.

RECTITUDE.

ENTER ye in at the strait gate: for Math. vii. 13.
wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat.

Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for Luke xiii. 24.
many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in,
and shall not be able.

Because strait is the gate, and narrow is Math. vii. 14.
the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye Luke xii. 57.
not what is right?

XXVII.

SUBMISSION TO SECULAR AUTHORITY.

SHEW me the tribute money. Math. xxii. 19.

Whose is this image and superscription? Math. xxii. 20.

Render therefore unto Cæsar the things Math. xxii. 21. which are Cæsar's ; and unto God the things that are God's.

Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, Mark xii. 15.
that I may see it.

Whose is this image and superscription? Mark xii. 16.

Render to Cæsar the things that are Mark xii. 17.
Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's.

Shew me a penny. Whose image and Luke xx. 24.
superscription hath it?

Render therefore unto Cæsar the things Luke xx. 25.
which be Cæsar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do Math. xvii. 25.
the kings of the earth take custom or tribute?
of their own children, or of strangers?

Then are the children free. Math. xvii. 26.

Notwithstanding, lest we should offend Math. xvii. 27.
them, go thou to the sea, and cast a hook,
and take up the fish that first cometh up ;
and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money : that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

XXVIII.

TOLERATION.

FORBID him not : for there is no man Mark ix. 39.
which shall do a miracle in my name,
that can lightly speak evil of me.

For he that is not against us is on our Mark ix. 40.
part.

For whosoever shall give you a cup of Mark ix. 41.
water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

Forbid him not : for he that is not against Luke ix. 50.
us is for us.

XXIX.

DUTY.

BUT which of you, having a servant Luke xvii. 7.
ploughing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

And will not rather say unto him, Make Luke xvii. 8.
ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

Doth he thank that servant because he Luke xvii. 9.
did the things that were commanded him?
I trow not.

So likewise ye, when ye shall have done Luke xvii. 10.
all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

XXX.

PERFECTION.

BE ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. Math. v. 48.

If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me. Math. xix. 21.

One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me. Mark x. 21.

Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. Luke xviii. 22.

The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master. Luke vi. 40.

XXXI.

THE BEATITUDES.

BLESSED are the pure in heart : for they Math. v. 8.
shall see God.

Blessed be ye poor : for yours is the king- Luke vi. 20.
dom of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for Math. v. 10.
righteousness' sake : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are the poor in spirit : for theirs is Math. v. 3.
the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are the peacemakers : for they Math. v. 9.
shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are the meek : for they shall in- Math. v. 5.
herit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and Math. v. 6. thirst after righteousness : for they shall be filled.

Blessed are ye that hunger now : for ye Luke vi. 21.
shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now : for ye shall laugh.

Blessed are they that mourn : for they shall Math. v. 4.
be comforted.

Blessed are the merciful : for they shall Math. v. 7.
obtain mercy.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, Math. v. 11.
and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, Luke vi. 22.
and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad : for great Math. v. 12.
is your reward in heaven : for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy : Luke vi. 23.
for, behold, your reward is great in heaven :
for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be Math. xi. 6.
offended in me.

And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be Luke vii. 23.
offended in me.

But blessed are your eyes, for they see : Math. xiii. 16.
and your ears, for they hear.

Blessed are the eyes which see the things Luke x. 23.
that ye see.

Yea, rather, blessed are they that hear the Luke xi. 28.
word of God, and keep it.

XXXII.

ABSOLUTION.

WHOSESOEVER sins ye remit, they John xx. 23.
 are remitted unto them ; and whose-soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Luke xxiv. 46.
 Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead
 the third day :

And that repentance and remission of sins Luke xxiv. 47.
 should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

Son, be of good cheer ; thy sins be for- Math. ix. 2.
 given thee.

For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be Math. ix. 5.
 forgiven thee ; or to say, Arise, and walk ?

But that ye may know that the Son of man Math. ix. 6.
 hath power on earth to forgive sins, Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

Son, thy sins be forgiven thee. Mark ii. 5.

Whether is it easier to say to the sick Mark ii. 9.
 of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee ; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk ?

But that ye may know that the Son of man Mark ii. 10.
 hath power on earth to forgive sins,

I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, Mark ii. 11.
 and go thy way into thine house.

Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. Luke v. 20.

Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be for- Luke v. 23.
 given thee ; or to say, Rise up and walk ?

But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house. Luke v. 24.

Thy sins are forgiven. Luke vii. 48.

Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven : and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Math. xviii. 18.

And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church ; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Math. xvi. 13.

And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven : and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven : and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Math. xvi. 19.

SIN.

I.

SATAN AND SIN.

I BEHELD Satan as lightning fall from heaven. Luke x. 18.

Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Math. iv. 10.
Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is Luke iv. 8.
written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an Math. xvi. 23.
offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou Mark viii. 33.
savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

Ye are of your father the devil, and the John viii. 44.
lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

How can Satan cast out Satan? Mark iii. 23.

If Satan also be divided against himself, Luke xi. 18.
how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided Math. xii. 26. against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

And if Satan rise up against himself, and Mark iii. 26.
be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by Math. xii. 27.
whom do your children cast them out?
therefore they shall be your judges.

And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by Luke xi. 19.
whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever John viii. 34.
committeth sin is the servant of sin.

And the servant abideth not in the house John viii. 35.
forever: but the Son abideth ever.

If the Son therefore shall make you free, John viii. 36.
ye shall be free indeed.

When any one heareth the word of the king- Math. xiii. 19.
dom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

And these are they by the way side, where Mark iv. 15.
the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and tak-eth away the word that was sown in their hearts.

Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath de- Luke xxii. 31.
sired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat.

Hereafter I will not talk much with you : John xiv. 30.
for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

Depart from me, ye cursed, into ever- Math. xxv. 41. lasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

II.

BLASPHEMY.

FOR out of the heart proceed . . . Math. xv. 19.
blasphemies.

For from within, out of the heart of men, Mark vii. 21, 22.
proceed . . . blasphemy.

And whosoever shall speak a word against Luke xii. 10.
the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him :
but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.

Wherefore I say unto you, All manner Math. xii. 31.
of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men : but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

And whosoever speaketh a word against Math. xii. 32.
the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him :
but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

Verily I say unto you, All sins shall Mark iii. 28.
be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme :

But he that shall blaspheme against the Mark iii. 29.
Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation :

III.

SCEPTICISM.

BUT there are some of you that believe John vi. 64.
not.

He that believeth and is baptized shall be Mark xvi. 16.
saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

He that believeth on him is not con- John iii. 18.
demned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou Math. xiv. 31.
doubt?

Why reason ye these things in your hearts? Mark ii. 8.

What reason ye in your hearts? Luke v. 22.

Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will John iv. 48.
not believe.

O faithless and perverse generation, how Math. xvii. 17.
long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

O faithless generation, how long shall I be Mark ix. 19.
with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

O faithless and perverse generation, how Luke ix. 41.
long shall I be with you, and suffer you?
Bring thy son hither.

Because of your unbelief: for verily I say Math. xvii. 20.
unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove : and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not : for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. John xii. 47.

He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him : the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. John xii. 48.

But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God. Luke xli. 9.

But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not. John vi. 36.

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. John v. 40.

If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin ; but now they have no cloak for their sin. John xv. 22.

If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin : but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. John xv. 24.

And ye have not his word abiding in you : for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not. John v. 38.

I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins : for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. John viii. 24.

I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not : if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. John v. 43.

How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only? John v. 44.

Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father : there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. John v. 45.

For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me : for he wrote of me. John v. 46.

But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words? John v. 47.

If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? John iii. 12.

And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. John viii. 45.

Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? John viii. 46.

He that is of God heareth God's words : ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God. John viii. 47.

Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen ; and ye receive not our witness. John iii. 11.

IV.

HYPOCRISY.

BEWARE ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. Luke xii. 1.

Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. Math. vi. 2.

Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. Math. vi. 16.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation. Math. xxiii. 14.

Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation. Mark xii. 40.

Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation. Luke xx. 47.

But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in. Math. xxiii. 13.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, Math. xxiii. 15.

hypocrites ! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, Math. xxiii. 25.
hypocrites ! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, Math. xxiii. 27.
hypocrites ! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, Luke xi. 44.
hypocrites ! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy Math. xv. 7.
of you, saying,

This people draweth nigh unto me with Math. xv. 8.
their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips ; but their heart is far from me.

Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypo- Mark vii. 6.
crites, As it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, Math. xxiii. 29.
hypocrites ! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous.

Even so ye also outwardly appear right- Math. xxiii. 28.
eous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

V.

PRIDE.

FOR from within, out of the heart of Mark vii. 21, 22.
men, proceed . . . pride.

Woe unto you, Pharisees ! for ye love the Luke xi. 43.
uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

Beware of the scribes, which love to go in Mark xii. 38.
long clothing, and love salutations in the market-places,

And the chief seats in the synagogues, and Mark xii. 39.
the uppermost rooms at feasts.

Beware of the scribes, which desire to Luke xx. 46.
walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts.

But all their works they do for to be seen Math. xxiii. 5.
of men : they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, Math. xxiii. 6.
and the chief seats in the synagogues,

And greetings in the markets, and to be Math. xxiii. 7. called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

For whosoever exalteth himself shall be Luke xiv. 11.
abased ; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be Math. xxiii. 12.
abased ; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

VI.

ANGER.

BUT I say unto you, That whosoever is Math. v. 22.
 angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

VII.

MURDER.

FOR out of the heart proceed . . . Math. xv. 19.
murders.

For from within, out of the heart of men, Mark vii. 21.
proceed . . . murders.

If thou wilt enter into life, keep the com- Math. xix. 17.
mandments.

Thou shalt do no murder. Math. xix. 18.

Ye have heard that it was said by them of Math. v. 21.
old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment.

Do not kill. Mark x. 19.

Do not kill. Luke xviii. 20.

Ye are of your father the devil, and the John viii. 44.
lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning.

VIII.

ADULTERY, FORNICATION, LASCIVIOUSNESS.

FOR from within, out of the heart of men, Mark vii. 21, 22.

Do not commit adultery. Mark x. 19.

Do not commit adultery. Luke xviii. 20.

Ye have heard that it was said by them of Math. v. 27.
 old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery :

But I say unto you, That whosoever look- Math. v. 28.
 eth on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

But I say unto you, That whosoever shall Math. v. 32.
 put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery :
 and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put Math. xix. 9.
 away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery : and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

Whosoever shall put away his wife, and Mark x. 11.

marry another, committeth adultery against her.

And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery. Mark x. 12.

Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery : and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery. Luke xvi. 18.

All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given. Math. xix. 11.

For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb : and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men : and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it. Math. xix. 12.

IX.

DIVORCE.

IT hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement : Math. v. 31.

But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery : and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery. Math. v. 32.

And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery : and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery. Math. xix. 9.

Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her. Mark x. 11.

And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery. Mark x. 12.

Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery : and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery. Luke xvi. 18.

What did Moses command you ? Mark x. 3.

Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives : but from the beginning it was not so. Math. xix. 8.

For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept. Mark x. 5.

FOR out of the heart proceed . . . thefts. Math. xv. 19.

If thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. Math. xix. 17.

Thou shalt not bear false witness. Math. xix. 18.

Do not bear false witness. Mark x. 19.

Do not bear false witness. Luke xviii. 20.

Defraud not. Mark x. 19.

Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. John viii. 44.

XII.

EVIL EYE, WICKEDNESS, FOOL-ISHNESS.

FOR out of the heart proceed evil thoughts. Math. xv. 19.

For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts. Mark vii. 21.

. . . wickedness, . . . an evil eye, . . . foolishness. Mark vii. 22.

But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness ! Math. vi. 23.

The light of the body is the eye : therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light ; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. Luke xi. 34.

Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good? Math. xx. 15.

XIII.

COVETOUSNESS.

FOR from within, out of the heart of men proceed . . . covetousness. Mark vii. 21, 22.

Take heed, and beware of covetousness : for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. Luke xii. 15.

The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully : Luke xii. 16.

And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits? Luke xii. 17.

And he said, This will I do : I will pull down my barns, and build greater ; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods. Luke xii. 18.

And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years ; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. Luke xii. 19.

But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee : then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? Luke xii. 20.

So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God. Luke xii. 21.

MATERIALISM AND WORLDLINESS.

YE are they which justify yourselves before men ; but God knoweth your hearts : for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God. Luke xvi. 15.

Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. John iv. 48.

An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign ; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. Math. xii. 39.

A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign ; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. Math. xvi. 4.

Why doth this generation seek after a sign ? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. Mark viii. 12.

This is an evil generation : they seek a sign ; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet. Luke xi. 29.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled. John vi. 26

Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things. Luke x. 41.

Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give John vi. 27.

unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: Math. vi. 19.

But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: Math. vi. 20.

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Math. vi. 21.

Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God. Luke ix. 60.

Behold, a sower went forth to sow; Math. xiii. 3.

And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them. Math. xiii. 7.

He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. Math. xiii. 22.

Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow, Mark iv. 3.

And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. Mark iv. 7.

And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, Mark iv. 18.

And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. Mark iv. 19.

And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, Luke viii. 14.

and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

A certain man made a great supper, and bade many : Luke xiv. 16.

And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come ; for all things are now ready. Luke xiv. 17.

And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it : I pray thee have me excused. Luke xiv. 18.

And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them : I pray thee have me excused. Luke xiv. 19.

And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. Luke xiv. 20.

So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind. Luke xiv. 21.

And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. Luke xiv. 22.

And the Lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. Luke xiv. 23.

For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper. Luke xiv. 24.

There was a certain rich man, which had Luke xvi. 1.
a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

And he called him, and said unto him, Luke xvi. 2.
How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

Then the steward said within himself, Luke xvi. 3.
What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

I am resolved what to do, that, when I Luke xvi. 4. am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

So he called every one of his lord's Luke xvi. 5.
debtors unto him, and said unto the first,
How much owest thou unto my lord?

And he said, A hundred measures of oil. Luke xvi. 6.
And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

Then said he to another, And how much Luke xvi. 7.
owest thou? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

And the lord commended the unjust Luke xvi. 8.
steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

And I say unto you, Make to yourselves Luke xvi. 9.
friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

No man can serve two masters: for either Math. vi. 24.

he will hate the one, and love the other ; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

No servant can serve two masters : for Luke xvi. 13.
either he will hate the one, and love the other ; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. Luke xxi. 34.

For as in the days that were before the flood Math. xxiv. 38.
they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark,

And knew not until the flood came, and Math. xxiv. 39.
took them all away ; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall Luke xvii. 26.
it be also in the days of the Son of man.

They did eat, they drank, they married Luke xvii. 27.
wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot ; Luke xvii. 28.
they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded ;

But the same day that Lot went out of Luke x. 29.
Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

PROCRASTINATION.

WHO then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? Math. xxiv. 45.

Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Math. xxiv. 46.

Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods. Math. xxiv. 47.

But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; Math. xxiv. 48.

And shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken; Math. xxiv. 49.

The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, Math. xxiv. 50.

And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Math. xxiv. 51.

Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season? Luke xii. 42.

Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Luke xii. 43.

Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath. Luke xii. 44.

But and if that servant say in his heart, Luke xii. 45.

My lord delayeth his coming ; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken ;

The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. Luke xii. 46.

And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. Luke xii. 47.

When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us ; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are : Luke xiii. 25.

Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets. Luke xiii. 26.

But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are ; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. Luke xiii. 27.

There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. Luke xiii. 28.

A certain man made a great supper, and bade many : Luke xiv. 16.

And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come ; for all things are now ready. Luke xiv. 17.

And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused. Luke xiv. 18.

And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused. Luke xiv. 19.

And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. Luke xiv. 20.

JUDGING.

JUDGE not, and ye shall not be judged : Luke vi. 37. condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned :

Judge not, that ye be not judged. Math. vii. 1.

For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall Math. vii. 2.
be judged : and with what measure ye mete,
it shall be measured to you again.

Take heed what ye hear. With what Mark iv. 24.
measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you ; and unto you that hear shall more be given.

Ye judge after the flesh ; I judge no man. John viii. 15.

But if ye had known what this meaneth, I Math. xii. 7. will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

And why beholdest thou the mote that is Math. vii. 3.
in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye ?

Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let Math. vii. 4. me pull out the mote out of thine eye ; and,
behold, a beam is in thine own eye ?

Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out Math. vii. 5.
of thine own eye ; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

And why beholdest thou the mote that is Luke vi. 41.
in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye ?

Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Luke vi. 42.
Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

He that is without sin among you, let him John viii. 7.
first cast a stone at her.

Woman, where are those thine accusers? John viii. 10.
hath no man condemned thee?

Neither do I condemn thee : go, and sin John viii. 11.
no more.

BLINDNESS OF HEART.

WHEN it is evening, ye say, It will be Math. xvi. 2. fair weather : for the sky is red.

And in the morning, It will be foul weather Math. xvi. 3.
to day : for the sky is red and lowering. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky ; but can ye not discern the signs of the times ?

When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, Luke xii. 54.
straightway ye say, There cometh a shower ;
and so it is.

And when ye see the south wind blow, ye Luke xii. 55.
say, There will be heat ; and it cometh to pass.

Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of Luke xii. 56.
the sky and of the earth ; but how is it that ye do not discern this time ?

How is it that ye do not understand ? Mark viii. 21.

Having eyes, see ye not ? and having ears, Mark viii. 18.
hear ye not ? and do ye not remember ?

Unto you it is given to know the mysteries Luke viii. 10.
of the kingdom of God : but to others in parables ; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

That seeing they may see, and not per- Mark iv. 12.
ceive ; and hearing they may hear, and not understand ; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

Let them alone : they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. Math. xv. 14.

Therefore speak I to them in parables : because they seeing see not ; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. Math. xiii. 13.

And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand ; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive : Math. xiii. 14.

For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed ; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. Math. xiii. 15.

BACKSLIDING.

WHEN the unclean spirit is gone out Math. xii. 43. of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

Then he saith, I will return into my house Math. xii. 44.
from whence I came out ; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

Then goeth he, and taketh with himself Math. xii. 45.
seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there : and the last state of that man is worse than the first.
Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

When the unclean spirit is gone out of a Luke xi. 24.

rest ; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven Luke xi. 26.

DENUNCIATIONS.

WOE unto the world because of offences ! for it must needs be that offences come ; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh ! Math. xviii. 7.

But woe unto you that are rich ! for ye have received your consolation. Luke vi. 24.

Woe unto you that are full ! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now ! for ye shall mourn and weep. Luke vi. 25.

Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you ! for so did their fathers to the false prophets. Luke vi. 26.

A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign ; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. Math. xvi. 4.

Why doth this generation seek after a sign ? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. Mark viii. 12.

heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

And whosoever shall not receive you, nor Math. x. 14.
hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet.

Verily I say unto you, It shall be more Math. x. 15.
tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomor-rah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

And whosoever shall not receive you, nor Mark vi. 11.
hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

And whosoever will not receive you, when Luke ix. 5.
ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

But into whatsoever city ye enter, and Luke x. 10.
they receive you not, go your ways out into
the streets of the same, and say,

Even the very dust of your city, which Luke x. 11.
cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you :
notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

But I say unto you, that it shall be more Luke x. 12

tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it : because they repented at the preaching of Jonas ; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. Math. xii. 41.

The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it : for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon ; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here. Math. xii. 42.

The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it : for they repented at the preaching of Jonas ; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. Luke xi. 32.

Woe unto thee, Chorazin ! woe unto thee, Bethsaida ! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. Luke x. 13.

But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. Math. xi. 22.

But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you. Luke x. 14.

And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted Math. xi. 23.

 men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one

Woe unto you, lawyers ! for ye have taken Luke xi. 52.

 ye hindered.

Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hyp- Math. xxiii. 25.

But woe unto you, Pharisees ! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God : these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Luke xi. 42.

some of them they shall slay and persecute :

That upon you may come all the righteous Math. xxiii. 35.

may be required of this generation ;

From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Luke xi. 51.
Zacharias, which perished between the altar

EXEGESIS.

I.

THE ATONEMENT.

SEARCH the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. John v. 39.

Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad. John viii. 56.

Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how is it written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought. Mark ix. 12.

But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them. Math. xvii. 12.

And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed! Luke xxii. 22.

The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born. Math. xxvi. 24.

The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born. Mark xiv. 21.

The Son of man must suffer many things, Luke ix. 22.

and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain. and be raised the third day.

Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

Math. xx. 18.

And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.

Math. xx. 19.

Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:

Mark x. 33.

And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him; and the third day he shall rise again.

Mark x. 34.

Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

Luke xviii. 31.

For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

Luke xviii. 32.

And they shall scourge him, and put him to death; and the third day he shall rise again.

Luke xviii. 33.

All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

Math. xxvi. 31

All ye shall be offended because of me Mark xiv. 27.
 this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Luke xxiv. 46.
 Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead
 the third day:

And that repentance and remission of sins Luke xxiv. 47.
 should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

For I say unto you, That this that is Luke xxii. 37.
 written must yet be accomplished in me,
 And he was reckoned among the trans-gressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

These are the words which I spake unto Luke xxiv. 44.
 you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

And when these things begin to come to Luke xxi. 28.
 pass, then look up, and lift up your heads;
 for your redemption draweth nigh.

And as Moses lifted up the servant in the John iii. 14.
 wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

That whosoever believeth in him should John iii. 15.
 not perish, but have eternal life.

And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, John xii. 32.
 will draw all men unto me.

Greater love hath no man than this, that John xv. 13.
 a man lay down his life for his friends.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a John xii. 24.
 corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone : but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more ; but ye see me : because I live, ye shall live also. John xiv. 19.

Nevertheless I tell you the truth ; It is expedient for you that I go away : for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you ; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. John xvi. 7.

And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. John iii. 13.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice ; and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. John xvi. 20.

And ye now therefore have sorrow : but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you. John xvi. 22.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. John iii. 16.

Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest ; because I said, I am the Son of God ? John x. 36.

He that believeth on him is not condemned : but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. John iii. 18.

And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. John xii. 47.

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. John iii. 17.

For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. Luke xix. 10.

For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. Luke ix. 56.

I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. John viii. 24.

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. John xvi. 33.

O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not! Luke xiii. 34.

Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Luke xiii. 35.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. John x. 7.

I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. John x. 9.

The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy : I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. John x. 10.

I am the good shepherd : the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. John x. 11.

As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father : and I lay down my life for the sheep. John x. 15.

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold : them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice ; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. John x. 16.

Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. John x. 17.

No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father. John x. 18.

For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Mark x. 45.

Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Math. xx. 28.

For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. John vi. 38.

And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. John vi. 39.

And this is the will of him that sent me, John vi. 40.
that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life :
and I will raise him up at the last day.

When ye have lifted up the Son of man, John viii. 28.
then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself ; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

I am the living bread which came down John vi. 51.
from heaven : if any man eat of this bread,
he shall live for ever : and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

This is my body which is given for you : Luke xxii. 19.
this do in remembrance of me.

Take, eat ; this is my body, which is broken 1 Cor. xi. 24.
for you : this do in remembrance of me.

This is my blood of the new testament, Mark xiv. 24.
which is shed for many.

This cup is the new testament in my Luke xxii. 20.
blood, which is shed for you.

This cup is the new testament in my 1 Cor. xi. 25.
blood : this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

He that is washed needeth not save to John xiii. 10.
wash his feet, but is clean every whit : and ye are clean, but not all.

What I do thou knowest not now ; but John xiii. 7.
thou shalt know hereafter.

If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with John xiii. 8.
me.

Father, the hour is come ; glorify thy Son, John xvii. 1.
that thy Son also may glorify thee :

As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. John xvii. 2.

And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. John xvii. 3.

I have glorified thee on the earth : I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. John xvii. 4.

I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world : thine they were, and thou gavest them me ; and they have kept thy word. John xvii. 6.

And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. John xvii. 19.

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word ; John xvii. 20.

That they all may be one ; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us : that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. John xvii. 21.

I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one ; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me. John xvii. 23.

Now is my soul troubled ; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour : but for this cause came I unto this hour. John xii. 27.

Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee ; take away this cup from me : nevertheless, not what I will, but what thou wilt. Mark xiv. 36.

O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup Math. xxvi. 39.

pass from me : nevertheless, not as I will,
but as thou wilt.

Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup Luke xxii. 42.
from me : nevertheless, not my will, but thine, be done.

O my Father, if this cup may not pass Math. xxvi. 42.
away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

Put up thy sword into the sheath : the cup John xviii. 11.
which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

Ought not Christ to have suffered these Luke xxiv. 26. things, and to enter into his glory?

It is finished. John xix. 30.

II.

PRAYER.

AND when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are : for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. Math. vi. 5.

Two men went up into the temple to pray ; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. Luke xviii. 10.

The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. Luke xviii. 11.

I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. Luke xviii. 12.

And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. Luke xviii. 13.

I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other : for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased ; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. Luke xviii. 14.

But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret ; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. Math. vi. 6.

But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do : for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Math. vi. 7.

Be not ye therefore like unto them : for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. Math. vi. 8.

Ask, and it shall be given you ; seek, and ye shall find ; knock, and it shall be opened unto you : Math. vii. 7.

For every one that asketh receiveth ; and he that seeketh findeth ; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Math. vii. 8.

Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone ? Math. vii. 9.

Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent ? Math. vii. 10.

If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him ? Math. vii. 11.

After this manner therefore pray ye : Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Math. vi. 9.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Math. vi. 10.

Give us this day our daily bread. Math. vi. 11.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. Math. vi. 12.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil : For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen. Math. vi. 13

When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth. Luke xi. 2.

Give us day by day our daily bread. Luke xi. 3.

And forgive us our sins ; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation ; but deliver us from evil. Luke xi. 4.

Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. Math. xviii. 19.

For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. Math. xviii. 20.

And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. Math. xxi. 22.

Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them. Mark xi. 24.

And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. John xiv. 13.

If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. John xiv. 14.

And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. John xvi. 23.

Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name : ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. John xvi. 24.

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. John xv. 7.

Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves ; Luke xi. 5.

For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him? Luke xi. 6.

And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not : the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed ; I cannot rise and give thee. Luke xi. 7.

I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth. Luke xi. 8.

And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you ; seek, and ye shall find ; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Luke xi. 9.

For every one that asketh receiveth ; and he that seeketh findeth ; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Luke xi. 10.

If a Son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? Luke xi. 11.

Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? Luke xi. 12.

If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children ; how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? Luke xi. 13.

There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man : Luke xviii. 2.

And there was a widow in that city ; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary. Luke xviii. 3.

And he would not for a while : but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man ; Luke xviii. 4.

Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. Luke xviii. 5.

Hear what the unjust judge saith. Luke xviii. 6.

And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them ? Luke xviii. 7.

I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth ? Luke xviii. 8.

Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation : the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. Math. xxvi. 41.

Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak. Mark xiv. 38.

Pray that ye enter not into temptation. Luke xxii. 40.

Why sleep ye ? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. Luke xxii. 46.

III.

THE LETTER AND THE SPIRIT.

IT is the Spirit that quickeneth ; the flesh profiteth nothing : the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. John vi. 63.

Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. John vii. 24.

Hear, and understand : Math. xv. 10.

Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man ; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man. Math. xv. 11.

Are ye also yet without understanding ? Math. xv. 16.

Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught ? Math. xv. 17.

But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart ; and they defile the man. Math. xv. 18.

For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies : Math. xv. 19.

These are the things which defile a man :
but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man. Math. xv. 20.

Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand : Mark vii. 14

There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him : but the Mark vii. 15.

things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him ;

Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness :

All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups : and many other such like things ye do.

Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter ; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. Math. xxiii. 26.

Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also? Luke xi. 40.

Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. Mark vii. 9.

For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death: Mark vii. 10.

But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free. Mark vii. 11.

And ye suffer him no more to do aught for his father or his mother; Mark vii. 12.

Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye. Mark vii. 13.

Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition? Math. xv. 3.

For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. Math. xv. 4.

But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; Math. xv. 5.

And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition. Math. xv. 6.

Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing ; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor !

Ye fools and blind : for whether is greater, Math. xxiii. 17.
the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold ?

And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it Math. xxiii. 18.
is nothing ; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

Ye fools and blind : for whether is greater, Math. xxiii. 19.
the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift ?

Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, Math. xxiii. 20.
sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

And whoso shall swear by the temple, Math. xxiii. 21.
sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

And he that shall swear by heaven, swear- Math. xxiii. 22.
eth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hyp- Math. xxiii. 23.
ocrites ! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith : these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, Math. xxiii. 24.
and swallow a camel.

But woe unto you, Pharisees ! for ye tithe Luke xi. 42.
mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God : These ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hyp- Math. xxiii. 27.
ocrites ! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them. Luke xi. 44.

Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. Math. xxiii. 28.

Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, Math. xv. 7.

This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips ; but their heart is far from me. Math. xv. 8.

Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honour-eth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Mark vii. 6.

IV.

FOREORDINATION.

MURMUR not among yourselves. John vi. 43.

No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him : and I will raise him up at the last day. John vi. 44.

It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. John vi. 45.

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me ; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. John vi. 37.

But there are some of you that believe not. John vi. 64.

Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father. John vi. 65.

Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up. Math. xv. 13.

Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain ; that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. John xv. 16.

Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with : but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be Math. xx. 23.

given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give ; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared. Mark x. 40.

And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved : but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Math. xxiv. 22.

And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. Math. xxiv. 31.

And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved : but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days. Mark xiii. 20.

And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven. Mark xiii. 27.

And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? Luke xviii. 7.

For many are called, but few are chosen. Math. xxii. 14.

V.

PROFESSION OF FAITH.

WHOSOEVER therefore shall be Mark viii. 38.
 ashamed of me and of my words, in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

For whosoever shall be ashamed of me Luke ix. 26.
 and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

Whosoever therefore shall confess me be- Math. x. 32.
 fore men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall con- Luke xii. 8.
 fess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God.

But whosoever shall deny me before men, Math. x. 33.
 him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

But he that denieth me before men shall Luke xii. 9.
 be denied before the angels of God.

Go home to thy friends, and tell them how Mark v. 19.
 great things the Lord hath done for thee,
 and hath had compassion on thee.

Return to thine own house, and shew how Luke viii 39.
 great things God hath done unto thee.

VI.

PERSONAL ACCOUNTABILITY.

AND that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. Luke xii. 47.

But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required; and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more. Luke xii. 48.

If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. Mark iv. 23.

Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have. Luke viii. 18.

For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath. Math. xiii. 12.

Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear, shall more be given. Mark iv. 24.

For he that hath, to him shall be given; and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath. Mark iv. 25.

If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: John ix. 41.

but now ye say, We see ; therefore your sin remaineth.

And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment :

And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment ? And he was speechless.

Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness ; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

VII.

LABOR AND SELF-DEVELOPMENT.

AND about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? Math. xx. 6.

For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. Math. xxv. 14.

And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey. Math. xxv. 15.

Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents. Math. xxv. 16.

And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two. Math. xxv. 17.

But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. Math. xxv. 18.

After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them. Math. xxv. 19.

And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more. Math. xxv. 20.

His lord said unto him, Well done, thou Math. xxv. 21.

good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

He also that had received two talents Math. xxv. 22. came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

His lord said unto him, Well done, good Math. xxv. 23. and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

Then he which had received the one Math. xxv. 24 talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strewed:

And I was afraid, and went and hid thy Math. xxv. 25. talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

His lord answered and said unto him, Thou Math. xxv. 26. wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strewed:

Thou oughtest therefore to have put my Math. xxv. 27. money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

Take therefore the talent from him, and Math. xxv. 28. give it unto him which hath ten talents.

For unto every one that hath shall be Math. xxv. 29. given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness : there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Math. xxv. 30

He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. Luke xix. 12.

And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come. Luke xix. 13.

But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us. Luke xix. 14

And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. Luke xix. 15.

Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds. Luke xix. 16.

And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant : because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. Luke xix. 17.

And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds. Luke xix. 18.

And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities. Luke xix. 19.

And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin : Luke xix. 20.

For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man : thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. Luke xix. 21.

And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow :

Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury? Luke xix. 23

And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds. Luke xix. 24.

(And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.) Luke xix. 25.

For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given ; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him. Luke xix. 26.

VIII.

EQUALITY UNDER THE ATONEMENT.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto Math. xx. 1. a man that is a householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

And when he had agreed with the labour- Math. xx. 2.
ers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

And he went out about the third hour, Math. xx. 3.
and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

And said unto them; Go ye also into the Math. xx. 4. vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

Again he went out about the sixth and Math. xx. 5.
ninth hour, and did likewise.

And about the eleventh hour he went out, Math. xx. 6.
and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

They say unto him, Because no man hath Math. xx. 7. hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

So when even was come, the lord of the Math. xx. 8. vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

And when they came that were hired Math. xx. 9.
about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

But when the first came, they supposed Math. xx. 10.
that they should have received more ; and they likewise received every man a penny.

And when they had received it, they mur- Math. xx. 11.
mured against the goodman of the house,

Saying, These last have wrought but one Math. xx. 12.
hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

But he answered one of them, and said, Math. xx. 13.
Friend, I do thee no wrong : didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

Take that thine is, and go thy way : I Math. xx. 14.
will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

Is it not lawful for me to do what I will Math. xx. 15.
with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good?

IX.

THE SABBATH.

THE Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath. Luke vi. 5.

For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day. Math. xii. 8.

Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath. Mark ii. 28.

The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath: Mark ii. 27.

Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? Mark iii. 4.

Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? Luke xiv. 3.

I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it? Luke vi. 9.

Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? Luke xiii. 15.

Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day? Luke xiv. 5.

What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? Math. xii. 11.

How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days. Math. xii. 12.

And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day? Luke xiii. 16.

Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man. John vii. 22.

If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day? John vii. 23.

Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungered, and they that were with him? Math. xii. 3.

Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungered, he, and they that were with him? Mark ii. 25.

Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungered, and they which were with him? Luke vi. 3.

How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests? Math. xii. 4.

How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him? Mark ii. 26.

How he went into the house of God, and Luke vi. 4.

did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him ; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone ?

Or have ye not read in the law, how that Math. xii. 5. on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless ?

X.

MARRIAGE.

BUT from the beginning of the creation Mark x. 6.
 God made them male and female.

For this cause shall a man leave his father Mark x. 7.
 and mother, and cleave to his wife ;

And they twain shall be one flesh : so then Mark x. 8.
 they are no more twain, but one flesh.

What therefore God hath joined together, Mark x. 9.
 let not man put asunder.

Have ye not read, that he which made Math. xix. 4.
them at the beginning made them male and female,

And said, For this cause shall a man leave Math. xix. 5.
 father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife : and they twain shall be one flesh ?

Wherefore they are no more twain, but Math. xix. 6.
 one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

The children of this world marry, and are Luke xx. 34.
 given in marriage :

But they which shall be accounted worthy Luke xx. 35.
 to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.

For in the resurrection they neither marry, Math. xxii. 30.
 nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

For when they shall rise from the dead, Mark xii. 25.
 they neither marry, nor are given in marriage ;
 but are as the angels which are in heaven.

XI.

CHILDREN.

SUFFER little children, and forbid them Math. xix. 14.
not, to come unto me ; for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

Suffer the little children to come unto me, Mark x. 14.
and forbid them not ; for of such is the kingdom of God.

Suffer little children to come unto me, and Luke xviii. 16.
forbid them not : for of such is the kingdom of God.

Yea ; have ye never read, Out of the Math. xxi. 16 mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise ?

And whoso shall receive one such little Math. xviii. 5.
child in my name receiveth me.

Whosoever shall receive one of such chil- Mark ix. 37.
dren in my name, receiveth me ; and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

Whosoever shall receive this child in my Luke ix. 48.
name, receiveth me ; and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me : for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

But whoso shall offend one of these little Math. xviii 6 ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. Mark ix. 42.

Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven. Math. xviii. 10.

Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish. Math. xviii. 14.

Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Math. xviii. 3.

Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Math. xviii. 4.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. Mark x. 15.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein. Luke xviii. 17.

XII.

THE POOR.

BLESSED be ye poor : for yours is the kingdom of God. Luke vi. 20.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor. Luke iv. 18.

This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears. Luke iv. 21.

To the poor the gospel is preached. Luke vii. 22.

The poor have the gospel preached to them. Math. xi. 5.

If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor. Math. xix. 21.

One thing thou lackest : go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven : and come, take up the cross, and follow me. Mark x. 21.

Yet lackest thou one thing : sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven : and come, follow me. Luke xviii. 22.

But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind : Luke xiv. 13.

And thou shalt be blessed ; for they cannot recompense thee : for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just. Luke xiv. 14.

For ye have the poor always with you ; but me ye have not always. Math. xxvi. 11.

For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good : but me ye have not always. Mark xiv. 7.

For the poor always ye have with you ; but me ye have not always. John xii. 8.

XIII.

THE RICH.

VERILY I say unto you, That a rich man Math. xix. 23.
shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

And again I say unto you, It is easier for Math. xix. 24.
a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

How hardly shall they that have riches Mark x. 23.
enter into the kingdom of God !

Children, how hard is it for them that Mark x. 24.
trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God !

It is easier for a camel to go through the Mark x. 25.
eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

How hardly shall they that have riches Luke xviii. 24.
enter into the kingdom of God !

For it is easier for a camel to go through Luke xviii. 25.
a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

But woe unto you, that are rich ! for ye Luke vi. 24.
have received your consolation.

When thou makest a dinner or a supper, Luke xiv. 12.
call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours ; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee.

There was a certain rich man, which was Luke xvi. 19.

clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day :

And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, Luke xvi. 20.

And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table : moreover the dog's came and licked his sores. Luke xvi. 21.

And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom : the rich man also died, and was buried ; Luke xvi. 22.

And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. Luke xvi. 23.

And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue ; for I am tormented in this flame. Luke xvi. 24.

But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things : but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. Luke xvi. 25.

And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed : so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot ; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Luke xvi. 26.

Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house : Luke xvi. 27.

For I have five brethren ; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Luke xvi. 28.

Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets ; let them hear them. Luke xvi. 29.

And he said, Nay, father Abraham : but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. Luke xvi. 30.

And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead. Luke xvi. 31.

THE WORD.

HEAVEN and earth shall pass away : but Mark xiii. 31.
my words shall not pass away.

Heaven and earth shall pass away : but Luke xxi. 33.
my words shall not pass away.

The words that I speak unto you, they are John vi. 63.
spirit, and they are life.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man John viii 51.
keep my saying, he shall never see death.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that John v. 24.
heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation ; but is passed from death unto life.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is John v. 25.
coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God : and they
that hear shall live.

Marvel not at this : for the hour is coming, John v. 28.
in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice.

To this end was I born, and for this cause John xviii. 37.
came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

It is written, Man shall not live by bread Math. iv. 4. alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. Luke iv. 4.

And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. John xii. 47.

He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. John xii. 48.

For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. John xii. 49.

And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak. John xii. 50.

Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. John xiv. 10.

If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. John vii. 17.

I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father. John viii. 38.

He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. John vii. 18.

Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, John viii. 14.

and whither I go ; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak John iii. 11.
that we do know, and testify that we have seen ; and ye receive not our witness.

And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. John viii. 45.

Which of you convinceth me of sin? And John viii. 46.
if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

He that is of God heareth God's words : John viii. 47.
ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

But now ye seek to kill me, a man that John viii. 40.
hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God : this did not Abraham.

If I had not come and spoken unto them, John xv. 22.
they had not had sin : but now they have no cloke for their sin.

For had ye believed Moses, ye would have John v. 46.
believed me : for he wrote of me.

But if ye believe not his writings, how shall John v. 47.
ye believe my words?

These are the words which I spake unto Luke xxiv. 44.
you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

For I tell you, that many prophets and Luke x. 24.
kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them ; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. Math xi. 15.

If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. Mark iv. 23.

Take heed what ye hear : with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you : and unto you that hear shall more be given. Mark iv. 24.

Take heed therefore how ye hear : for whosoever hath, to him shall be given ; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have. Luke viii. 18.

Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like : Luke vi. 47.

He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock : and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it : for it was founded upon a rock. Luke vi. 48.

But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth ; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell ; and the ruin of that house was great. Luke vi. 49.

Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock : Math. vii. 24.

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house ; and it fell not : for it was founded upon a rock. Math. vii. 25.

And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened Math. vii. 26.

unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand :

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house ; and it fell : and great was the fall of it. Math. vii. 27.

And why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say ? Luke vi. 46.

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me : John x. 27.

If a man love me, he will keep my words : and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. John xiv. 23.

He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings : and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me. John xiv. 24.

These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. John xiv. 25.

If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed ; John viii. 31.

And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. John viii. 32.

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. John xv. 7.

If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love ; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. John xv. 10.

He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me : and he that loveth me shall be loved of my John xiv. 21.

Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. John xv. 14.

Henceforth I call you not servants ; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth : but I have called you friends ; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. John xv. 15.

This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. John xv. 12.

These things I command you, that ye love one another. John xv. 17.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor ; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, Luke iv. 18.

To preach the acceptable year of the Lord. Luke iv. 19.

I spake openly to the world ; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort ; and in secret have I said nothing. John xviii. 20.

I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also : for therefore am I sent. Luke iv. 43.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost : Math. xxviii. 19.

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you : and, lo, I Math. xxviii. 20.

am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

I have yet many things to say unto you, John xvi. 12.
but ye cannot bear them now.

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is John xvi. 13.
come, he will guide you into all truth : for he shall not speak of himself ; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak : and he will shew you things to come.

O righteous Father, the world hath not John xvii. 25.
known thee : but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

I have manifested thy name unto the men John xvii. 6.
which thou gavest me out of the world :
thine they were, and thou gavest them me ;
and they have kept thy word.

Now they have known that all things what- John xvii. 7.
soever thou hast given me are of thee.

For I have given unto them the words John xvii. 8.
which thou gavest me ; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

And now come I to thee ; and these John xvii. 13.
things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

I have given them thy word ; and the John xvii. 14.
world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

Sanctify them through thy truth : thy word John xvii. 17.
is truth.

And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. John xvii. 19.

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word ; John xvii. 20.

And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them. John xv'i. 26.

Behold, a sower went forth to sow ; Math. xiii. 3.

And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up : Math. xiii. 4.

Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth : and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth : Math. xiii. 5.

And when the sun was up, they were scorched ; and because they had no root, they withered away. Math. xiii. 6.

And some fell among thorns ; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them : Math. xiii. 7.

But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. Math. xiii. 8.

Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. Math. xiii. 9.

When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. Math. xiii. 19.

But he that received the seed into stony Math. xiii. 20.

places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it ;

Yet hath he not root in himself, but Math. xiii. 21.
dureth for a while : for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

He also that received seed among the Math. xiii. 22.
thorns is he that heareth the word ; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

But he that received seed into the good Math. xiii. 23.
ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it ; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

Hearken ; Behold, there went out a sower Mark iv. 3.
to sow :

And it came to pass, as he sowed, some Mark iv. 4.
fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

And some fell on stony ground, where it Mark iv. 5.
had not much earth ; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth :

But when the sun was up, it was scorched ; Mark iv. 6.
and because it had no root, it withered away.

And some fell among thorns, and the thorns Mark iv. 7.
grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

And other fell on good ground, and did Mark iv. 8.
yield fruit that sprang up and increased ; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. Mark iv. 9.

The sower soweth the word. Mark iv. 14.

And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown ; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. Mark iv. 15.

And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground ; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness ; Mark iv. 16.

And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time : afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. Mark iv. 17.

And these are they which are sown among thorns ; such as hear the word, Mark iv. 18.

And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. Mark iv. 19.

And these are they which are sown on good ground ; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some an hundred. Mark iv. 20.

A sower went out to sow his seed : and as he sowed, some fell by the way side ; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. Luke viii. 5.

And some fell upon a rock ; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. Luke viii. 6.

And some fell among thorns ; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. Luke viii. 7.

And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. Luke viii. 8.

Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. Luke viii. 10.

Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. Luke viii. 11.

Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. Luke viii. 12.

They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. Luke viii. 13.

And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. Luke viii. 14.

But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience. Luke viii. 15.

These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father. John xvi. 25.

What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops. Math. x. 27.

Remember the word that I said unto you, John xv. 20.
The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you ; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

These things I have spoken unto you, that John xvi. 33.
in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation : but be of good cheer ; I have overcome the world.

ANTI-CHRISTS.

FALSE PROPHETS, GUIDES, AND TEACHERS.

BEWARE of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Math. vii. 15.

Take heed that no man deceive you. Math. xxiv. 4.

For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. Math. xxiv. 5.

And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. Math. xxiv. 11.

Take heed lest any man deceive you: Mark xiii. 5.

For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. Mark xiii. 6.

Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them. Luke xxi. 8.

Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not. Math. xxiv. 23.

And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not. Mark xiii. 21.

Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not. Math. xxiv. 26.

For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Math. xxiv. 24.

For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. Mark xiii. 22.

Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Math. vii. 16.

Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. Math. vii. 17.

A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Math. vii. 18.

Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch? Luke vi. 39.

For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Luke vi. 43.

For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. Luke vi. 44.

Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Math. vii. 20.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. John x. 1.

All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. John x. 8.

It is impossible but that offences will come : but woe unto him, through whom they come ! Luke xvii. 1.

It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. Luke xvii. 2.

The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. Luke xvii. 22.

And they shall say to you, See here ; or, see there : go not after them, nor follow them. Luke xvii. 23.
